MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

Just the other day or at least it seems to have been but, these days,
I do tend to get lost in time passages or I'm delayed in transit which tends to confuse me even more than you are right now as this passage makes little sense to me and I just wrote it.
I was once told that this was to be expected when you make an effort to openingly battle time and it does seem that Stevie King was right in that time doesn't like that and when it bites

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

you hard in the ass even Old Doc Brown can't show up to save your sorry, time cheating ass and since you are messing with time even my low rent guardian angel from Tulsa won't return any of my collect calls.
So be it, then!
Being deserted, left on my own without even a sawbuck to see me through the day; none of this is new to me and maybe, I am stronger than if I have been born to wealth, position or power…you think?

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

OK! Lets get down to the brass tacks as I have successfully scared all them Wookie Haters, those sightseeing rubes who again bought this book by their own user error (“Clicked the damn wrong title, Mable!”) and those who would just hold us back as I have made an important and I believe a life-changing discovery that is worthy of the Mystery Schools and which I would FREELY share with them had they not kicked me to the curb like all the other ingrates!

Of course…this is my sad sack life and I accept this and as a proud graduate of the Columbia School of Journalism (The Home Study Course) I have successfully learned…they taught me…gave me the literary tools needed to turn my life of misadventures, lost opportunities and a God given ability to take CIS Women and turn them into Lesbians (True…the University of Southern California did a study on that back in the late 1970's that proved that there is a scientific correlation here but, they said that they would need to conduct additional research and given that it was the 1970's when traditional family values were still the norm…they were having a hard time recruiting enough CIS Women who were willing to risk martial security if the conjecture on my ability was to be proven correct) And here am I (still) today able to make a solid living sharing such random, scary thoughts.

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

Yesterday was strange times even by my offbeat standards as I was viciously attacked by angry book buyers who for (whatever) reason(s) decided to join together with the suggestion of approaching the manor with all forms of pitchforks, tekke torches and their oversized delete, cancel buttons drawn and ready to swoop down on me and my innocent little GOF Zombie Samples in a military-style operation and for the first time;

Sorry, just had to put that out there as his staff follow me and in large part because they do…I have coffee money this week because they keep refreshing my FaceeBookie Page and that crack team of FaceeBookie Staffers haven't caught on to my viewer scam…

So, I am always quick to tell Don and his fellow CNNister Made Men how much I value their clicks while gently reminding Don that it isn't

Look that up in David Lasky's New Best Selling "Insider's Guide to the Deep State and all minor players" if you don't believe Old Doc F or me in that he has been knighted as "Mister Science" not to be confused with wild science dude, Billy Nye who had that tragic meltdown (on nation-wide Cable) where he confused global warming with the

I vividly recall CNNister's own Mister Don emotionally reporting with a backdrop of tens of millions of the life challenged formed into mighty herd caravans with the purpose to get to the nearby drop boxes in all those small Georgia villages and get back to the cemeteries by dawn - they have Life Challenged Curfews even back then! What I never figure out seeing that Little Joey's DNC were as smart as they told everyone that they were then, why didn't they just charter a bunch of the Greyhounds that were sitting in Macon City's Impound lot to move these eager voters to multiple locations to drop off their photo-copied, mail-in-ballots. In fact, If I was life challenged and knew that they made me walk "Walking Dead" style to the polls then (Indeed, My Friend) I might have voted the other way! Where were we?

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH!

Let me clear this up as I have had more than a few of you take me to task and (in fact) Mister Rodney of London completely dressed me down over my passing comments (several books ago) on Auras and how they had served and protected the First Ones.

Of course, I only mentioned it in passing but you would have thought that I had given the nuclear launch codes to Ben & Jerry or was trying to sell them up on the Eddie-Bay Network. More so, the most common feed back was that I was trying to get all Mystery School Snobbish on them by flaunting my access to classified materials.

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

Both of these extremes were far from the main point that I had been wanting to make over what the Great Guru Wanda had told me just the day before she vanished without even a courtesy wake-up call and two days before those federal agents (or were they from the IRS or maybe, the Library of Congress wanting their overdue books back? Don't know except they had weapons, a SWAT Team and a complete CNNister News Crew in tow) showed up wanting to talk with Wanda.

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

In that narrative, I made mention (merely in passing) to my conversation with Wanda where she explained in great (boring) detail that the First Civilization had created auras (based on their understanding of the powers of magmatic, electrical Harmonics) to be a form of protect force field for home use and when properly programed protected you against anything from a speeding bullet to the common (none GOF) common cold and she implied that it might deflect unpaid tickets (unreturned library books?).

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH!

This is a redacted version of how Wands got here and that was because of a "Harmonic Disruption" in the field activator to her personal aura – which phased her into this frequency band length that we commonly refer to as out universe.

Question(s) now answered to your complete satisfaction, Mister Rodney?

To all those who are sitting out there and saying to themselves:

"What is this Damn Fool of an Emil saying?"

To those who are new to our podcast and board chats; let me see if I can put it into prospective that even Mister Don and them recently unemployed news humans down at the CNNister will grasp:

That isn't any clearer???

Let's try this again…

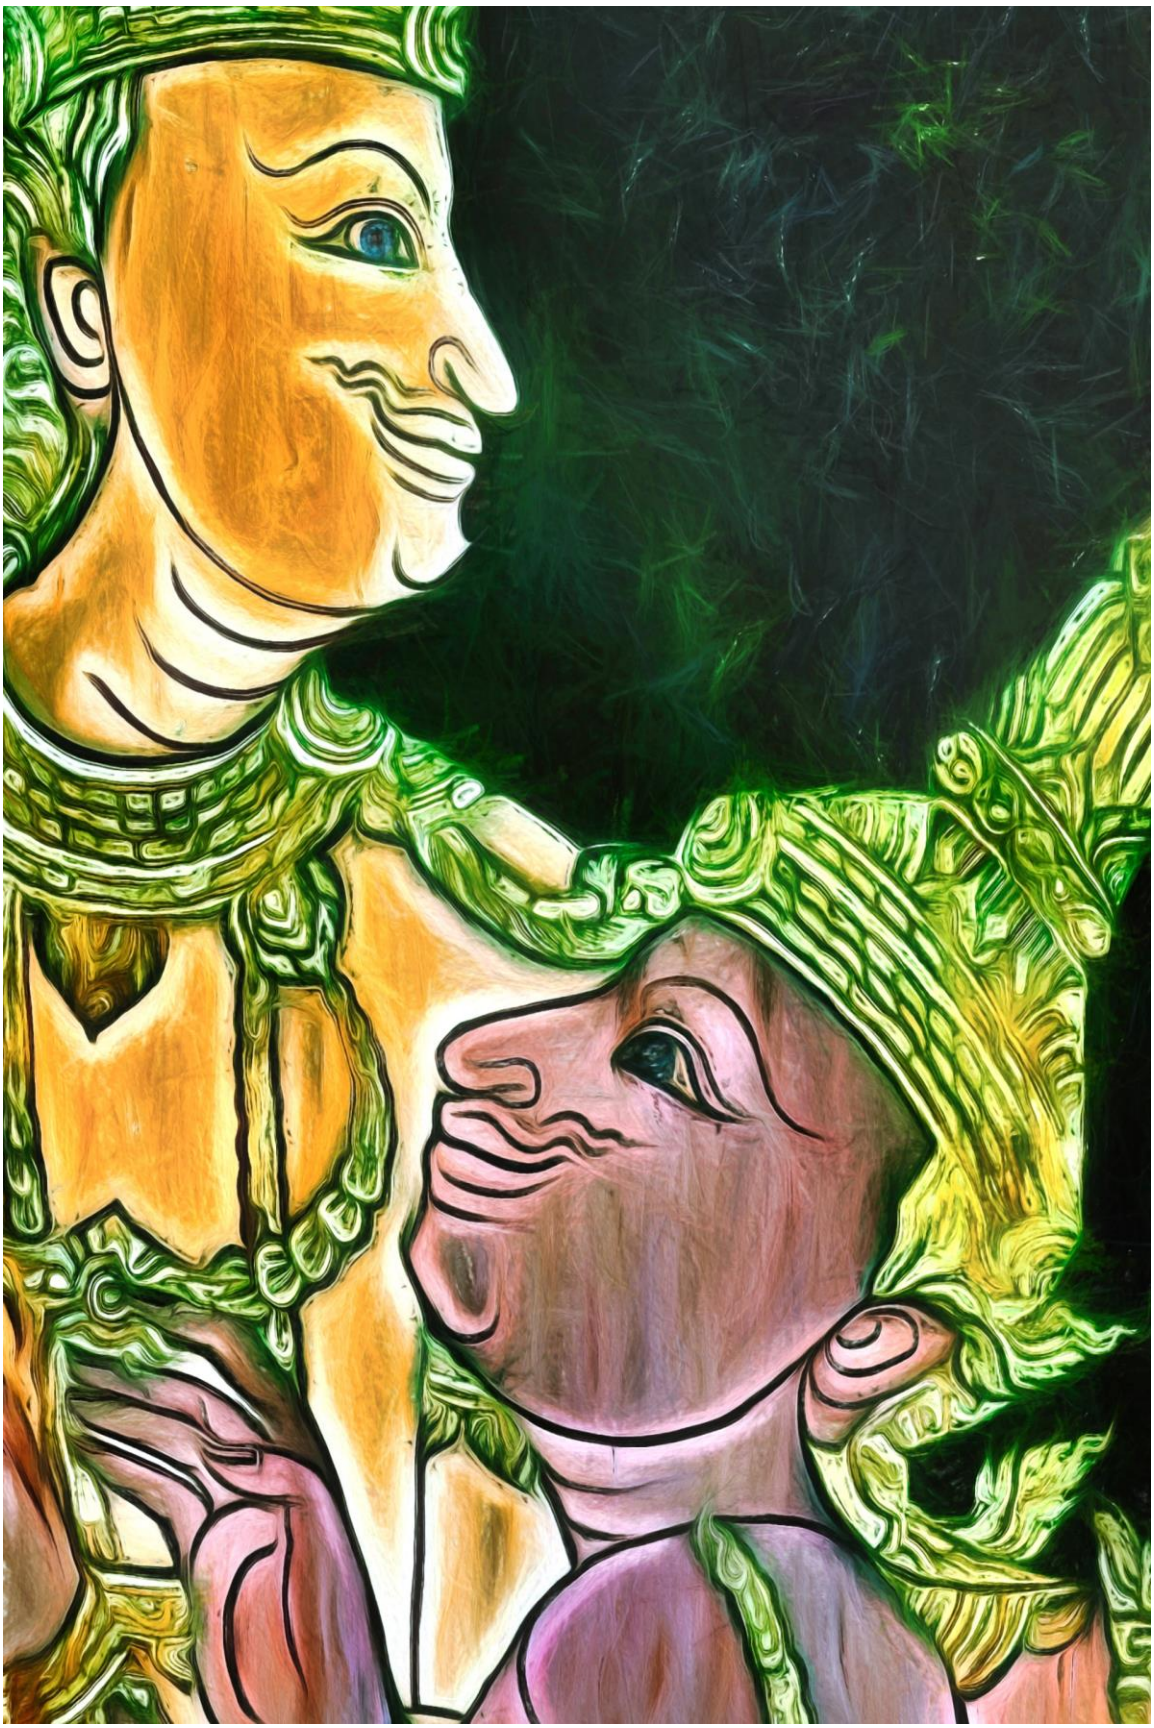
WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

Every single time when I get the urge to start this story something gets in the way and I do admit that I do get easily distracted by events as the unfold around me.

If I believed in the notion of free will then I would merely write it off as "Stuff Happens!"

But, I don't and with good reason(s) that would be difficult to chronicle in the few pages that I am allotted to here.

Let me just say this and



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

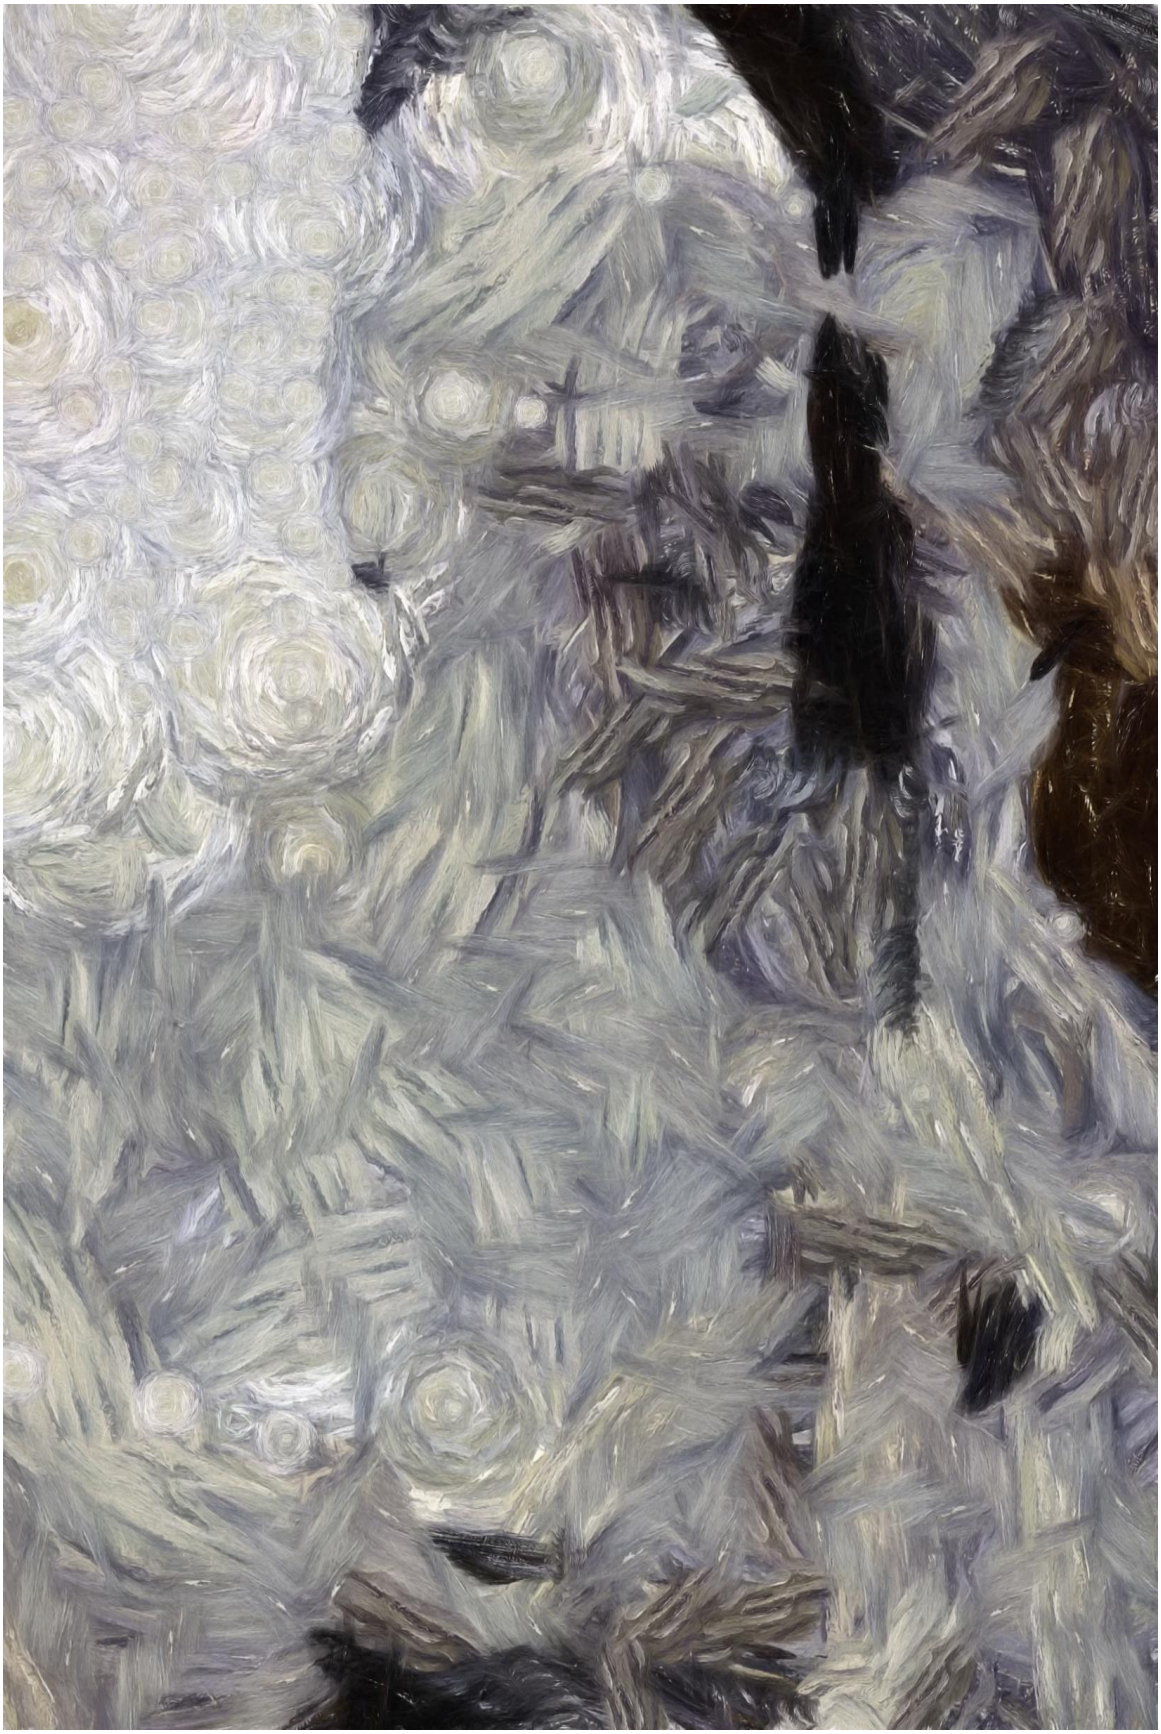
WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

leave it there for the time being but, fill this concept away as we will be revisiting it later on in this discussion.

No need to take notes as none of this is on the upcoming midterm tests.

Do you understand the difference between "Stuff Happens!" and the notion that "Things were meant to Happen!"

One of the first things that I learned from Wanda was based upon this question and I will start



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

at this same junction with you – in hope that you might share my own enlightenment and the profound ways that I now look at my place in the expanding multiverse (even though we had little to do with it or in fact, access to at this point due to their very strict immigration policies) or as Wanda always reminded me that I need to know my proper place and not to ask for senior discounts at the

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

Multiverse Gift Shop.

For reasons not known by me, the phrase "Senior Discounts" has been outright banned due to something in regards to how very un-woke and racist (?) that the Multiverse's external immigration authority has deemed it.

Wanda (as most times) was never very clear on the whys and even more cryptic of the mechanics of the how's as she would remind me that this was

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

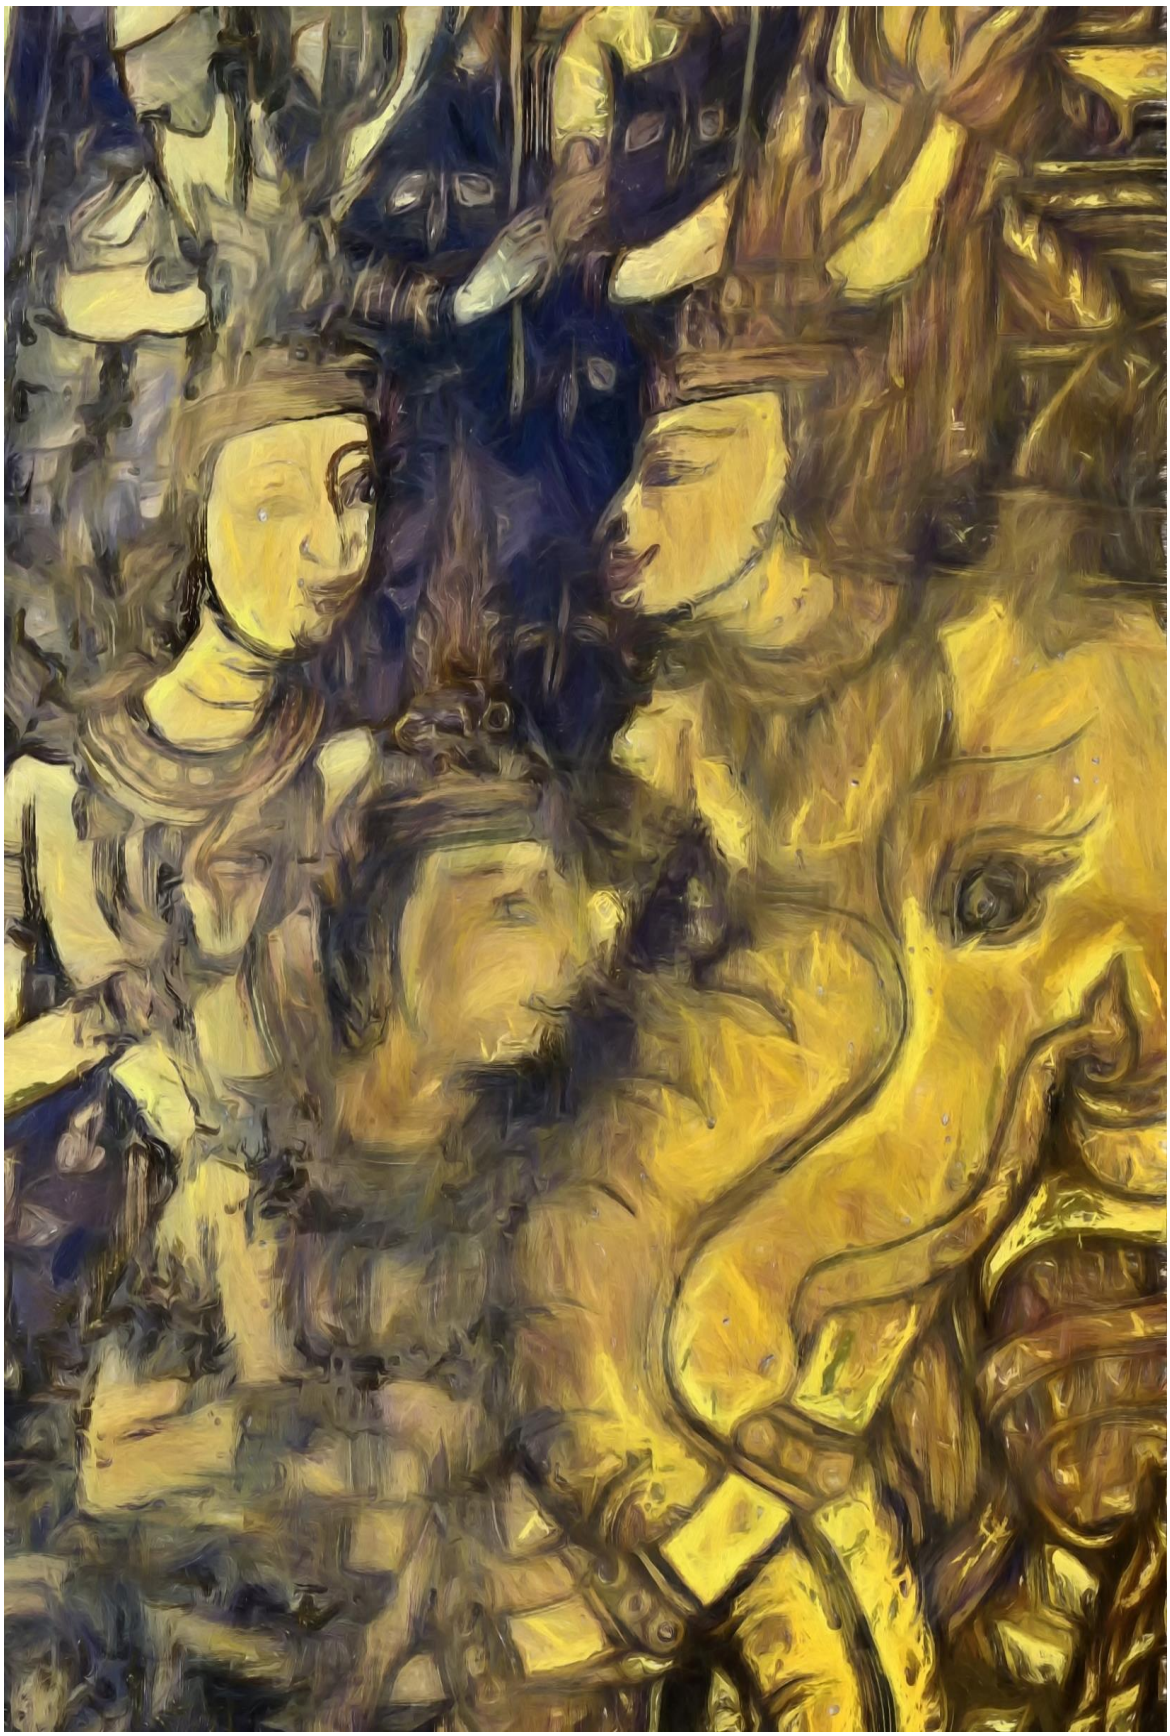
HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

on "a need to know" basis and that I should just trust her when she dismisses my enquires(s) with the notion that "This is far above your pay grade!"

What I have pieced and cobbled together from other fragments of my conversations with her is that this phrase is often used to imply a deeper, a much darker translation that lays bare a dirty secret of the Twelve Levels' latent bias of



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

"Age Privilege" which had been the social norm before the 2014's brutal and still decisive act of Insurrection in what Wanda referenced as "The Youngling Rebellion"

Traditionally, this concept of behind the phrase of "Age Privilege" was established at the time before modern recorded time in that lost age when the unionization of the first humans that had worked in slave-like conditions in

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

the Over Lord's Gold Mines in what is now call South Africa and how that led to the "First Great Extinction" which is the well-remembered mythology of what few of humanity's survivors lived through and handed down in legion form as it was a long time passing before humanity had advanced back to the ability to record their histories and which the latter generations now call:

"THE GREAT FLOOD"

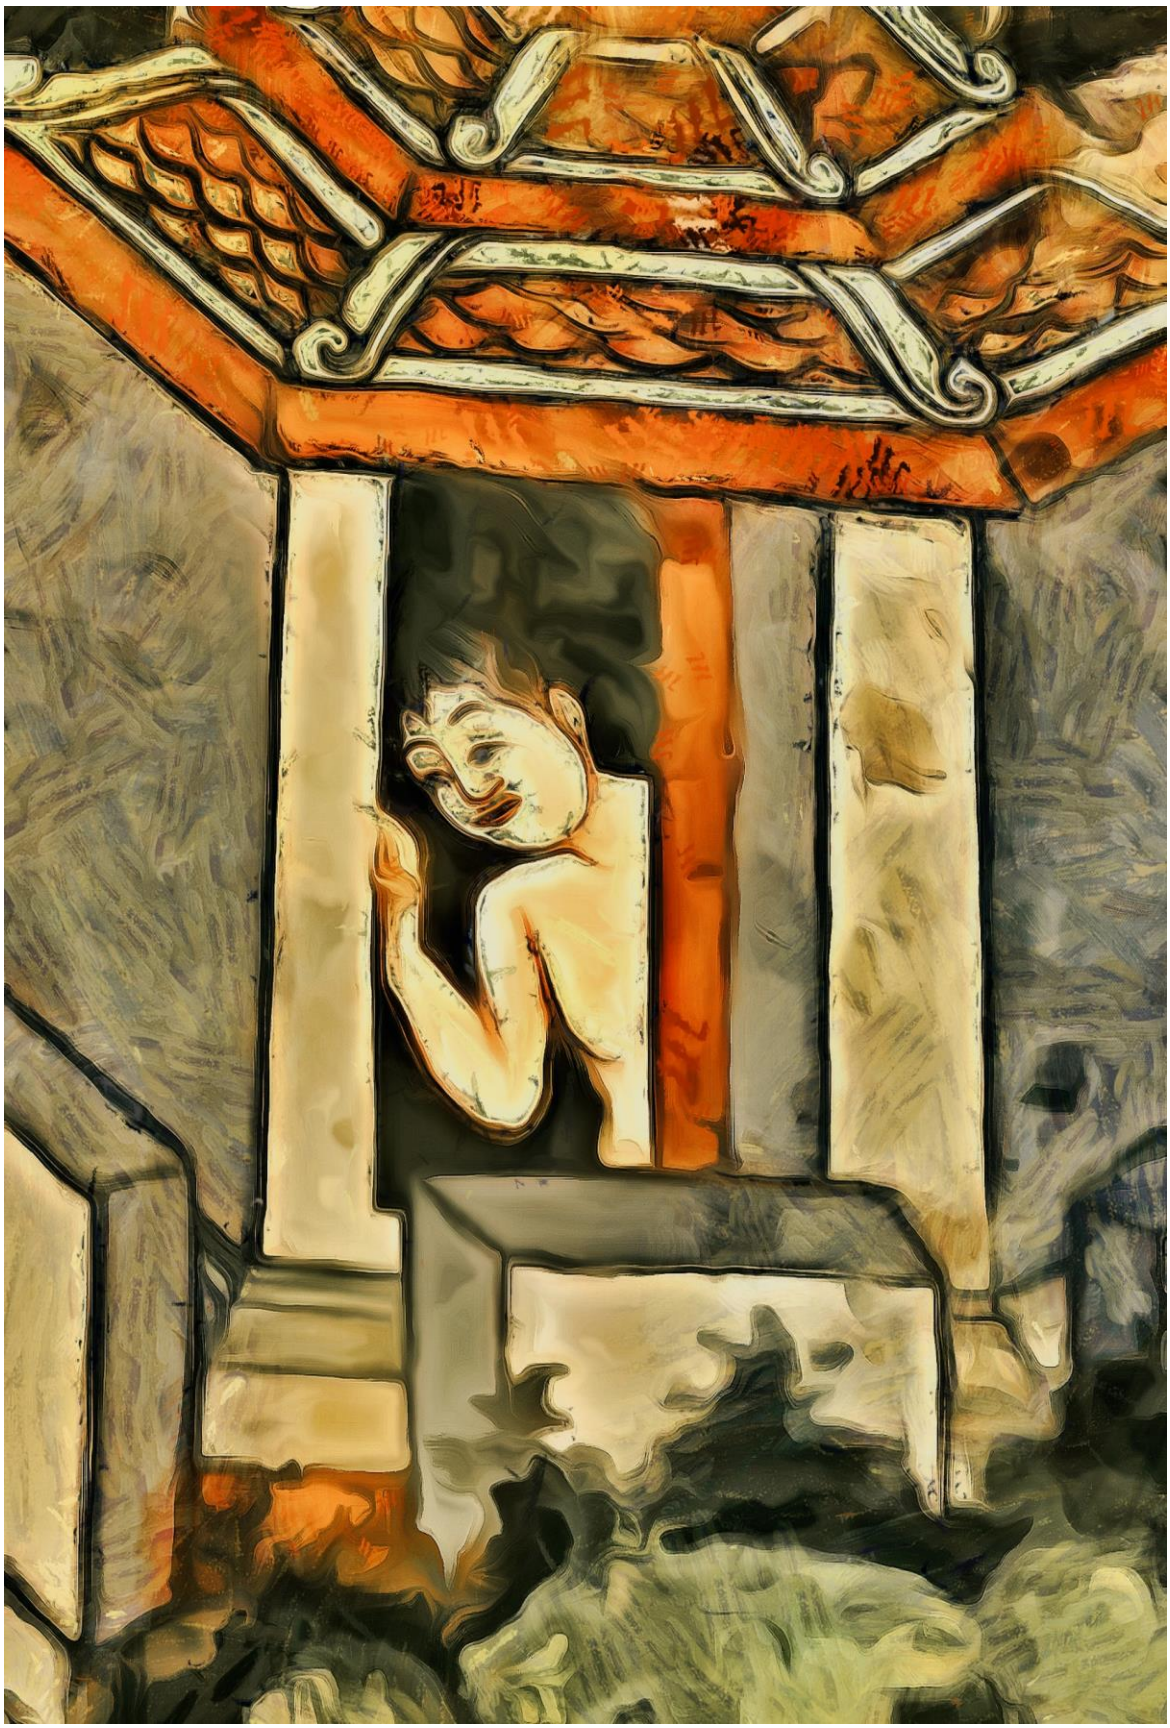
"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

What the Over Lords had not foreseen in their hasty decision to allow their scientists to use their advanced genic technology to over coming the growing problem of mine closures with the artificial creation a new scab (union term for non-human workers due to the physical mark on their forehead from DNA Feeding Tubes at conception (or later remembered in legends as the “Mark”) labor force to replace



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

the unionized humans was that “Freedom” was a social virus that could not be locked down or eradicated once it actively began to spread.

And, according to Wanda it did spread wildly as junior Over Lords became infected with this human virus and took it back to the home worlds.

“OK! Emil but what does this have to do with “Age Privilege?”

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

Think in terms of the phrase as what we now call “seniority” and how we still use it here in our modern times.

This was a concept like time that came directly from our original Over Lord Masters in order to monitor, actively control and dictate our daily activities for the purpose of enhanced our useful productivity.

Seniority was a tool that created a privileged

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

class amongst the first humans that could effectively be used to reward or be taken away as a form of punishment..

As there are no records that I have access to which talk about or document the time of these labor disputes and Humanity's Petition to the Over Lord Masters; we can not be certain but many who have studied this in greater depth that I have concluded that "seniority"

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

requirement was first introduced by the Over Lords as a mean of creating a two caste wedge between Humanity and by doing this they still could exercise control of humanity as their DNA Enhanced work force had turned into a disappointment in that the first generation had difficulty in doing complex tasks that humans did easily or later generations turned out too smart and joined the

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

humans in unionized uprisings that were spreading globally.

This was a final attempt to bring the labor situation back under the control of the Over Lords before the news of what was happening reached the home worlds or that the delays of critical minerals could no longer be dismissed as surplus chain issues.

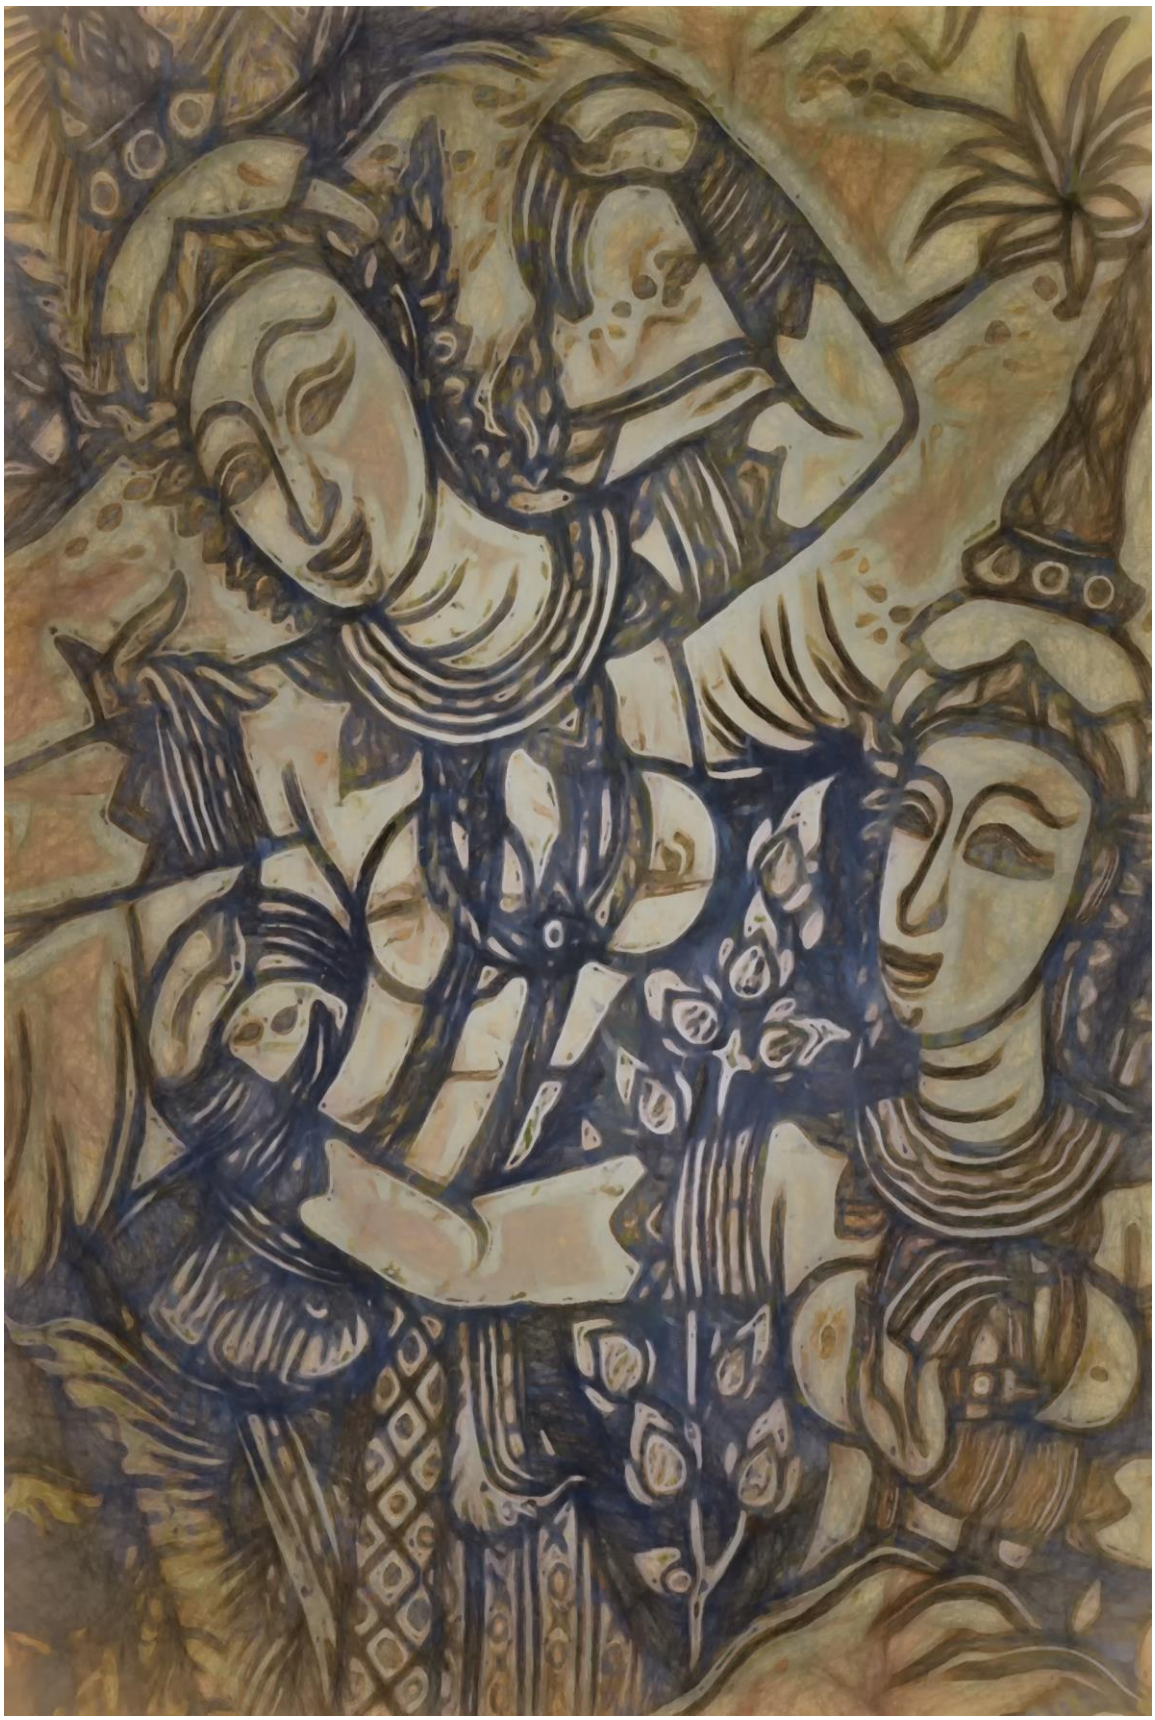
You must remember that Humanity's Over Lords had

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

themselves their own set of Over Lords that they needed to answer to.

The great design of seniority was never meant to benefit the union nor Humanity as it did not reward the smartest, the bright or the hardest working of the rabble as that would be insane to promote and sponsor the very people that they wished to suppress as they knew that there would come a day when such people would no



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

longer be happy to serve the Over Lords but given time, they might seek to become a new generation of new Over Lords.

As verbal histories and legend of this age confirm that while this temporally did bunt the labor uprising(s) and production actually advanced ahead of schedule; other issues would arise with the Home Worlds over the management or dare I say

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

the mismanagement of the financials of planet's mining operations and what was suspected to have been a junior Over Lord who returned infected with the Human Virus "Freedom" and he in turn became (I guess this might be the proper terminology) a first-hand "Whistle Blower" to the utilization of genetic creation that had been banned in the home worlds for thousands-of-years.

There is a minority of

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

Multiverse Scholars (are far from a majority view) who have proposed a theory that it was this issue and that the Home Worlds were sending a team of investigators to determine the truth and punish those guilty for violating scared laws; this was the reasoning for the first “Great Extinction” instead as a away to deal with a union strike out of control.

I do see their point in that there were like very

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

seriously laws that had been broken, the punishment was to be swift, the judgement final and more than a few of the guilty could well expect a long life on Sagan 4's Criminal Re-Education Training Centers (labor camps for all those less sensitive than our Wookie Cadre Friends reading out there).

Their reasoning is that as even the first humans had been subject to GOF

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

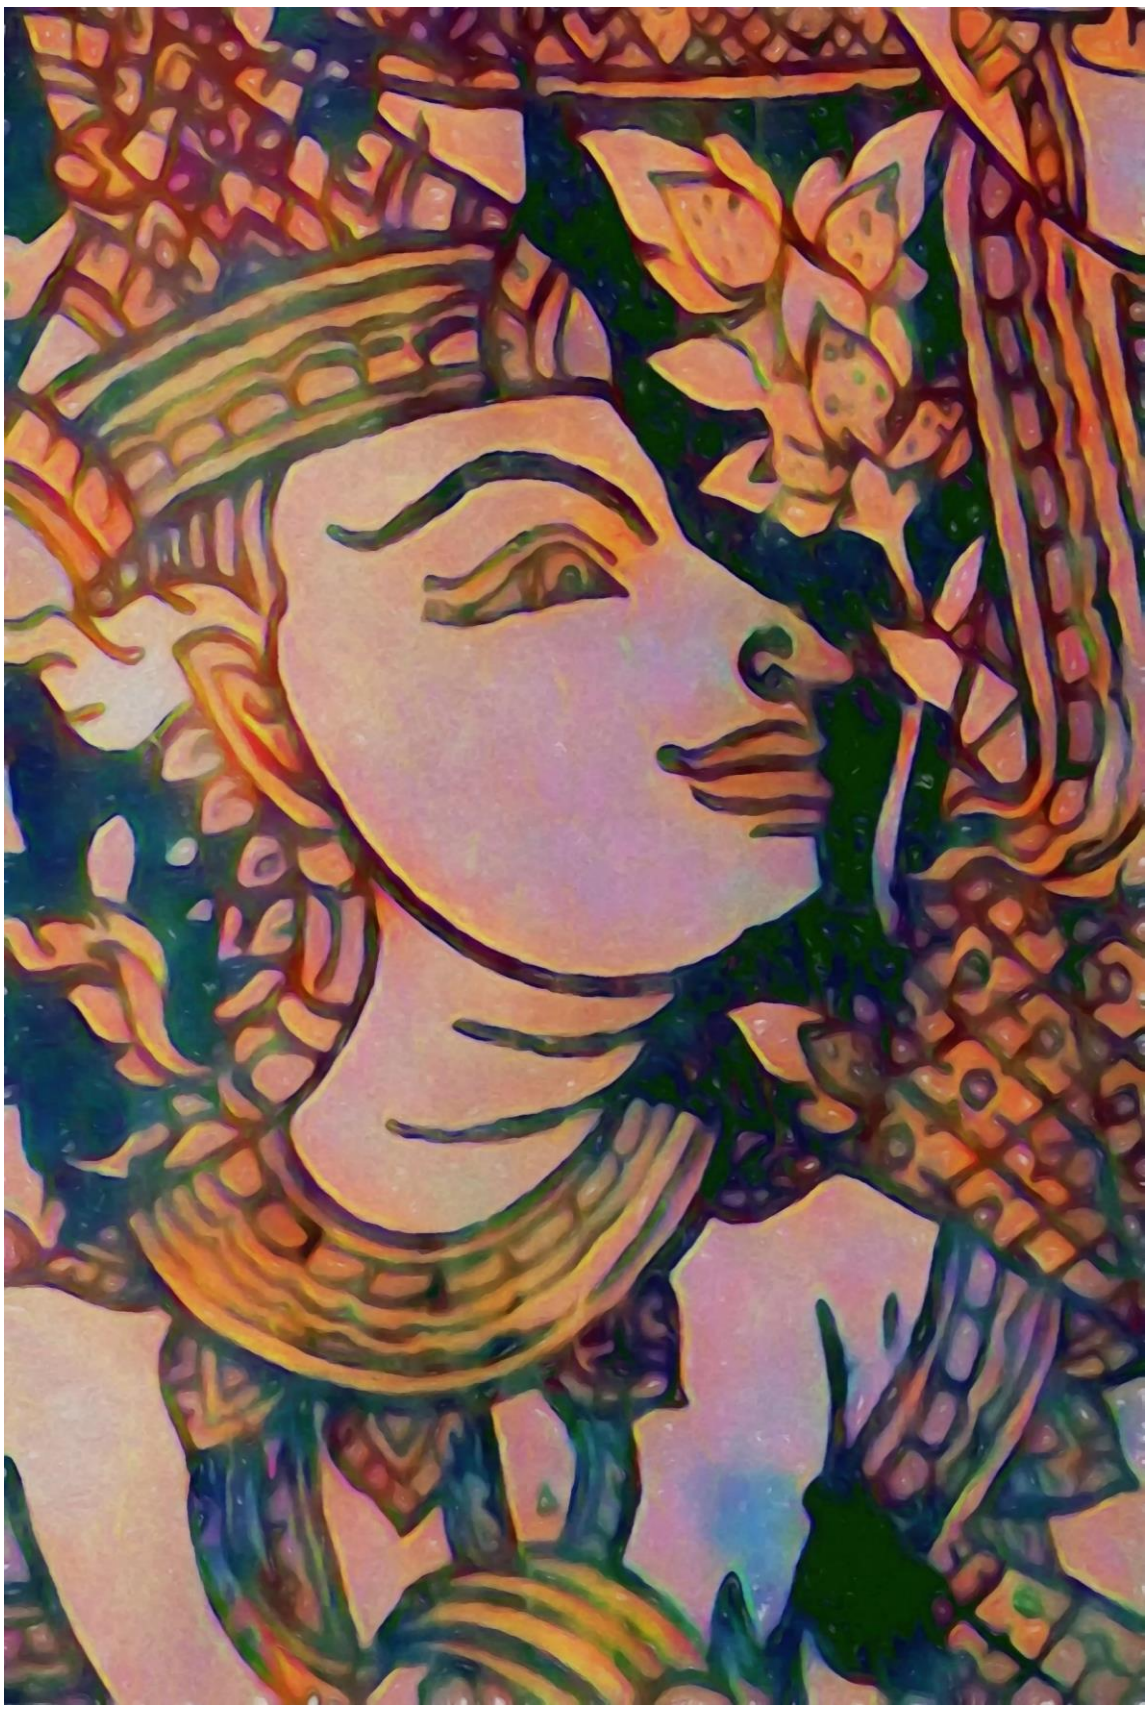
HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

(Gain of Function) DNA recalculation; if all traces of GOF Humans were not destroyed the investigators from the Home Worlds would find their proof and that would be it for a large number of Over Lord Masters who either did or who did nothing to stop breaking a scared law.

And, thus a reasonable version for the “Great Flood” and the abandonment of a very profitable mining colony.



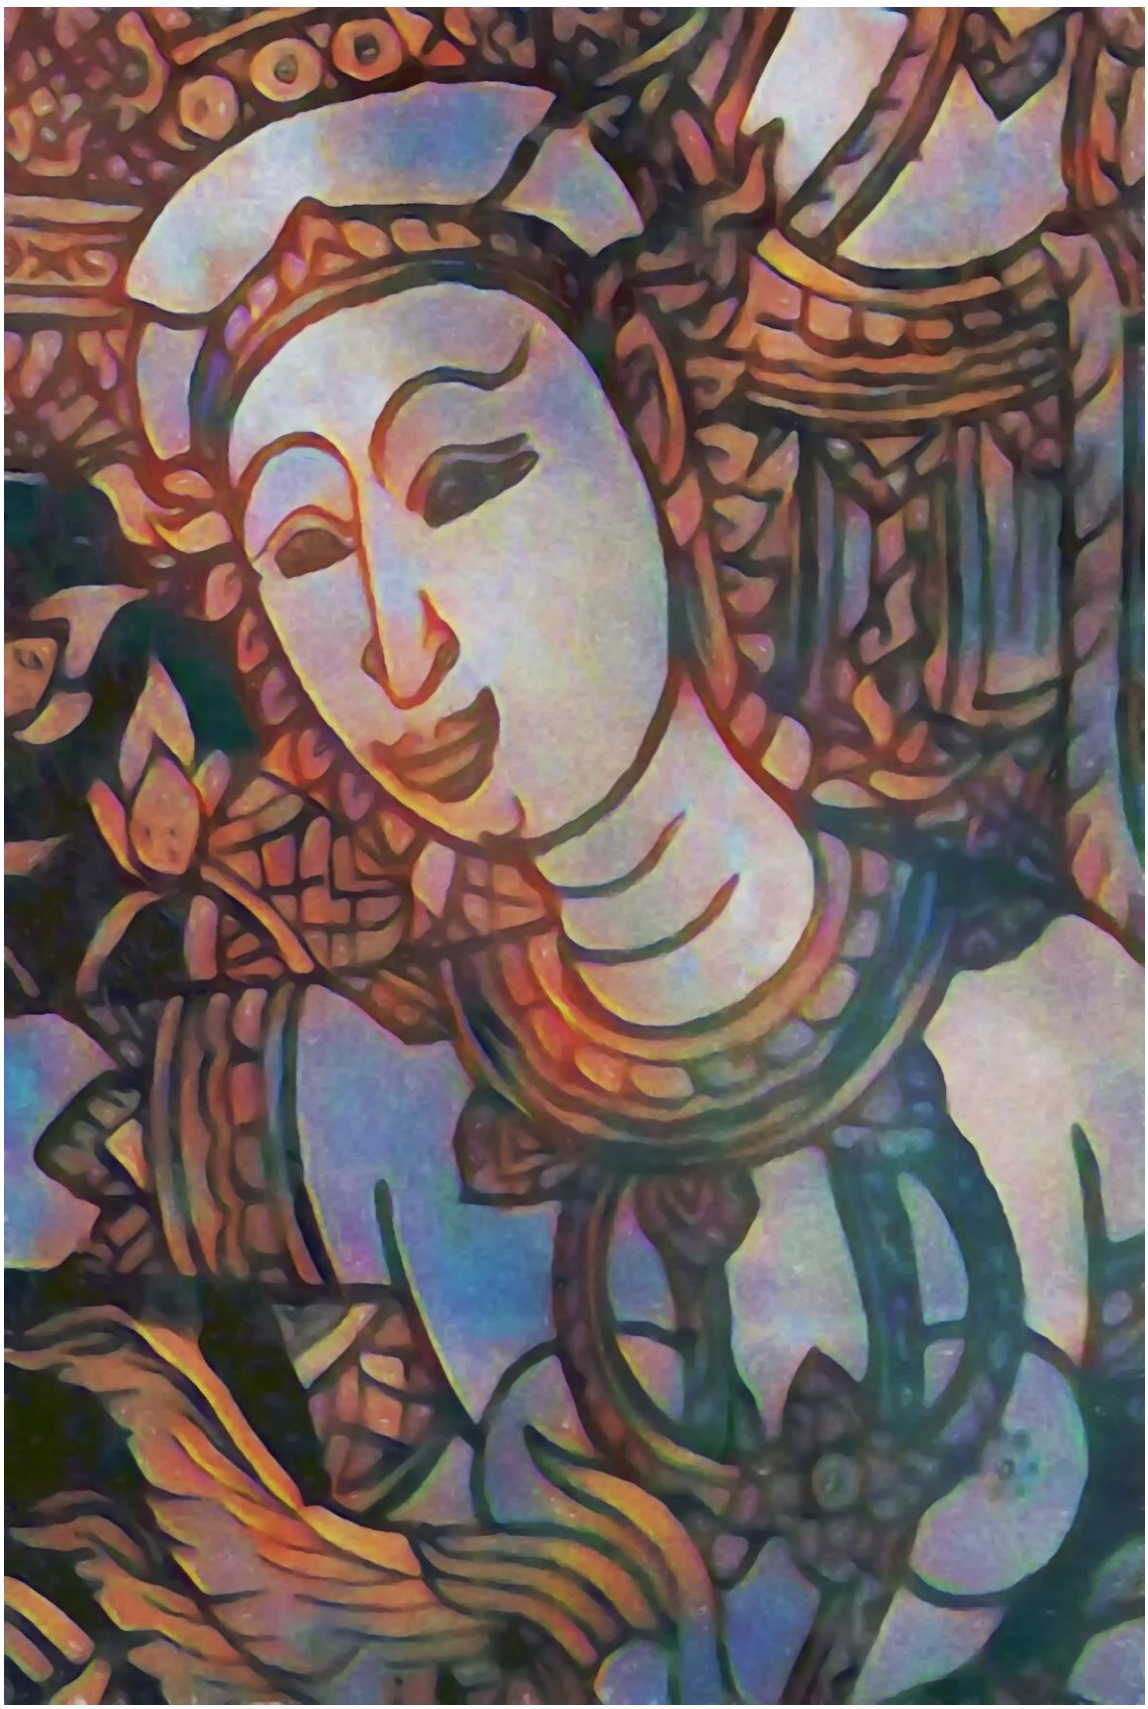
"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

profitable mining colony.

All of this, which for most purposes worked in hiding the crimes of the Over Lords not to mention the dual set of record books that hid the fact that almost 45% of the colony's production was being sold off-world to a consortium of traders from the Empire (from the third level of the Multi-verse).

Again, this is new theory which has not been



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

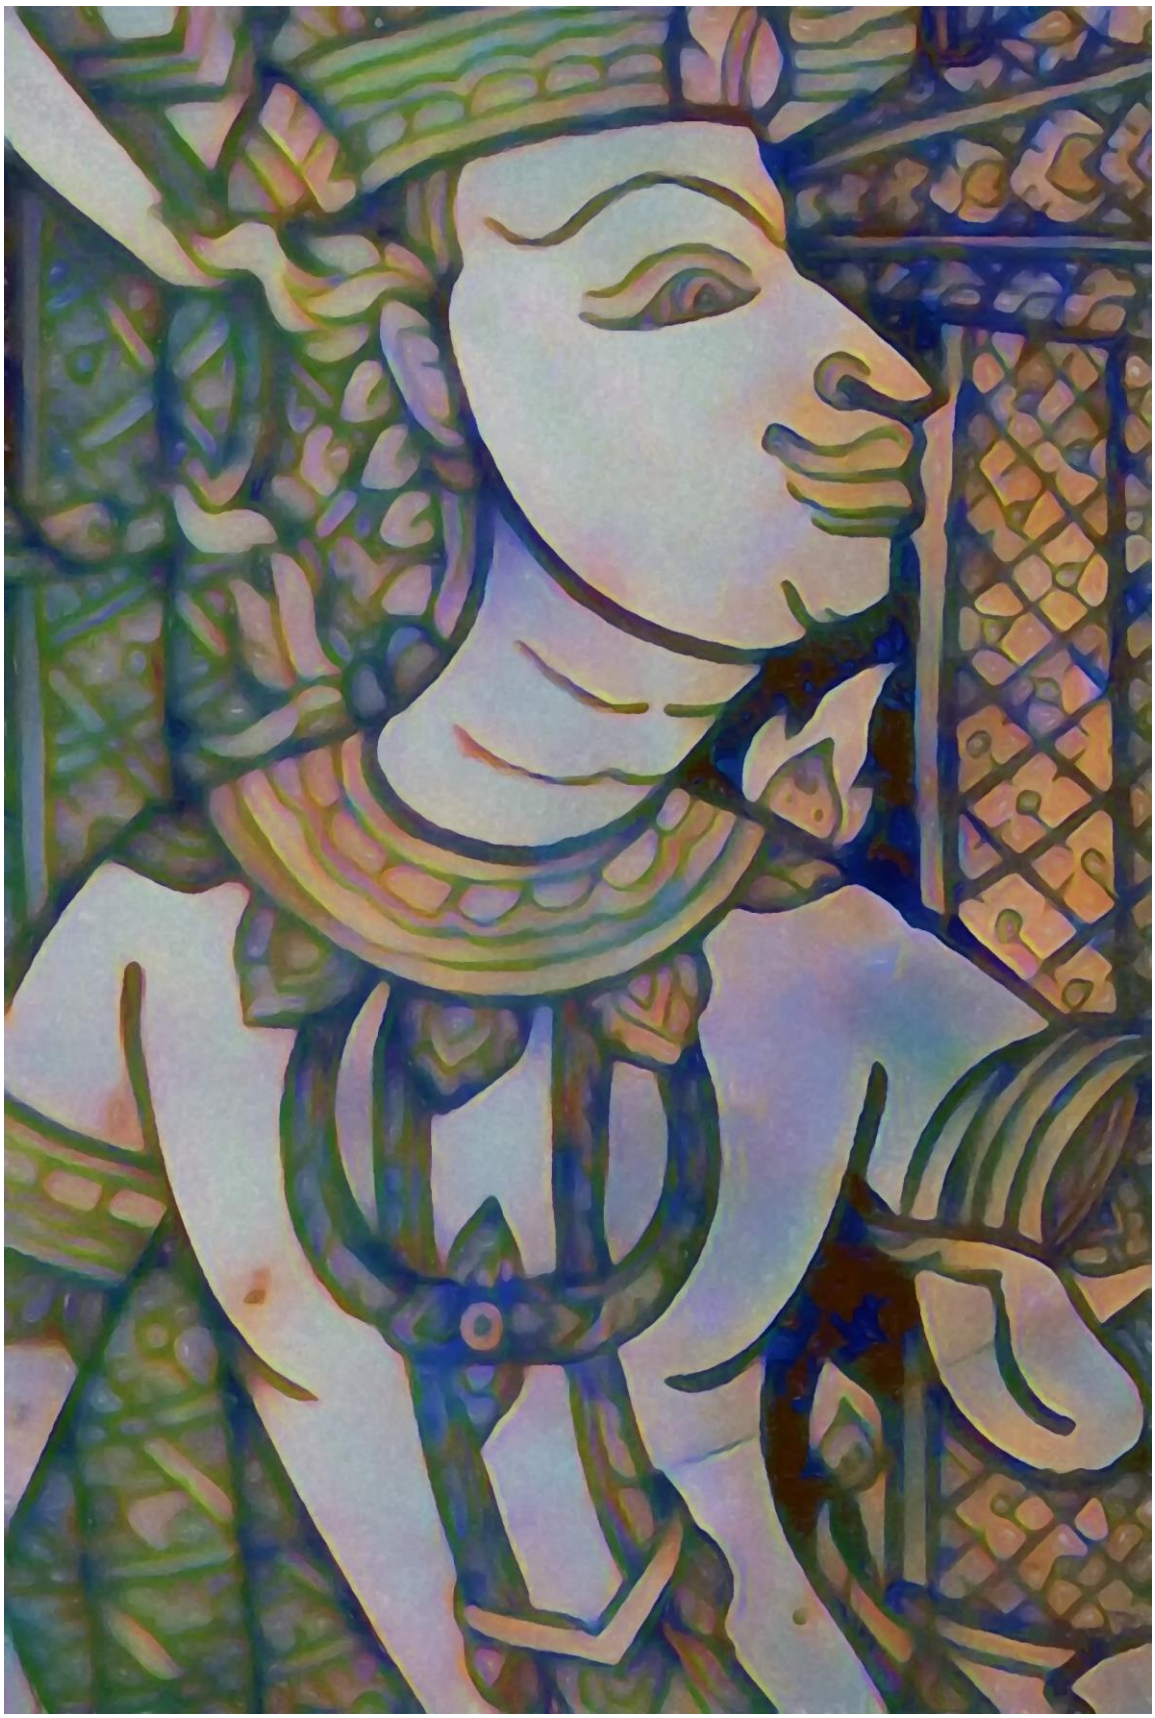
MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

totally accepted as canon to the events of those lost times.

To be open with you all, I am the first to admit that I too had questions to this new telling of this ancient tale and this did trouble Wanda who tried to tie my questions into my deeper “Age Privilege” infected (Wanda said diseased) mind.

My first question was as to how are we here if the Over Lords were that



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

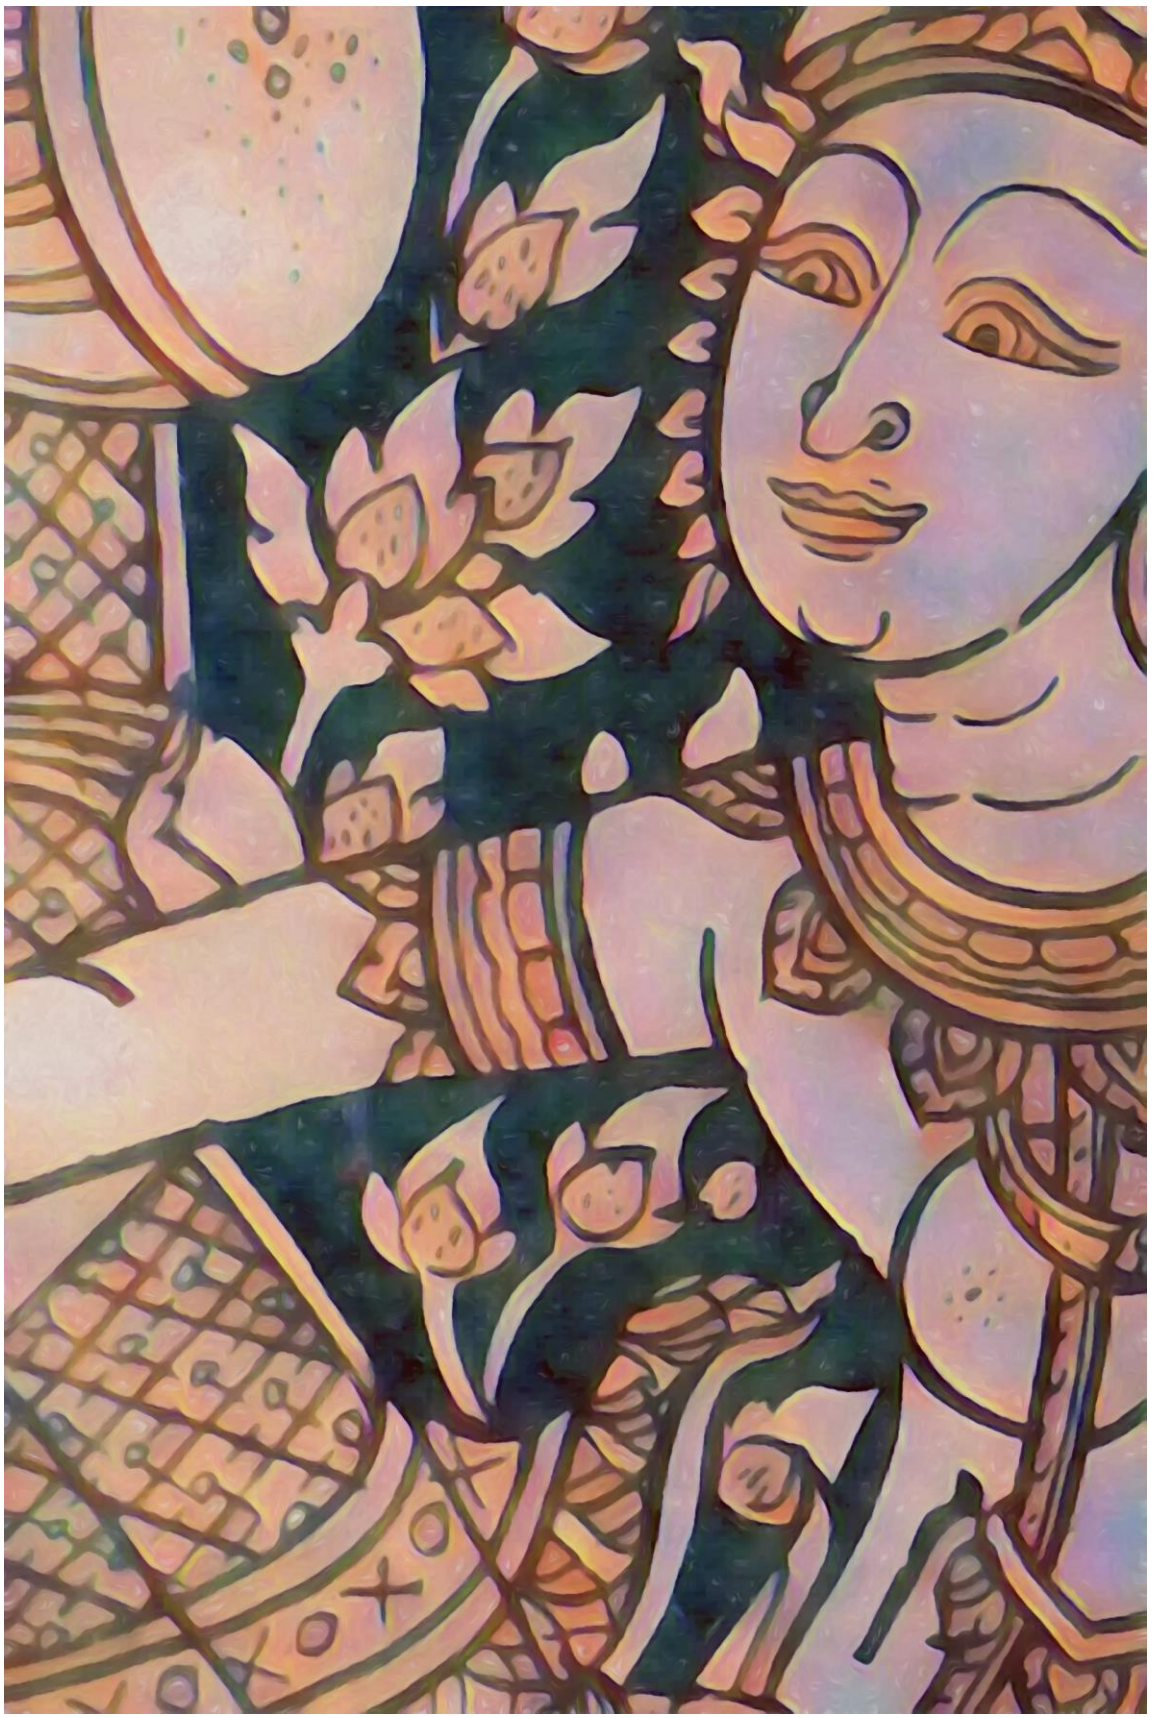
HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

desperate to hide their crimes and what does this have the least to do with "Seniority" or "Age privilege?"

To no one's surprise, Wanda did have a very clear answer that seemed to make a bit of sense if you understand that the seniority caste had direct access to…many dealt directly with the Overlords and given human nature to get nosey might well explain that a few of these special humans



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

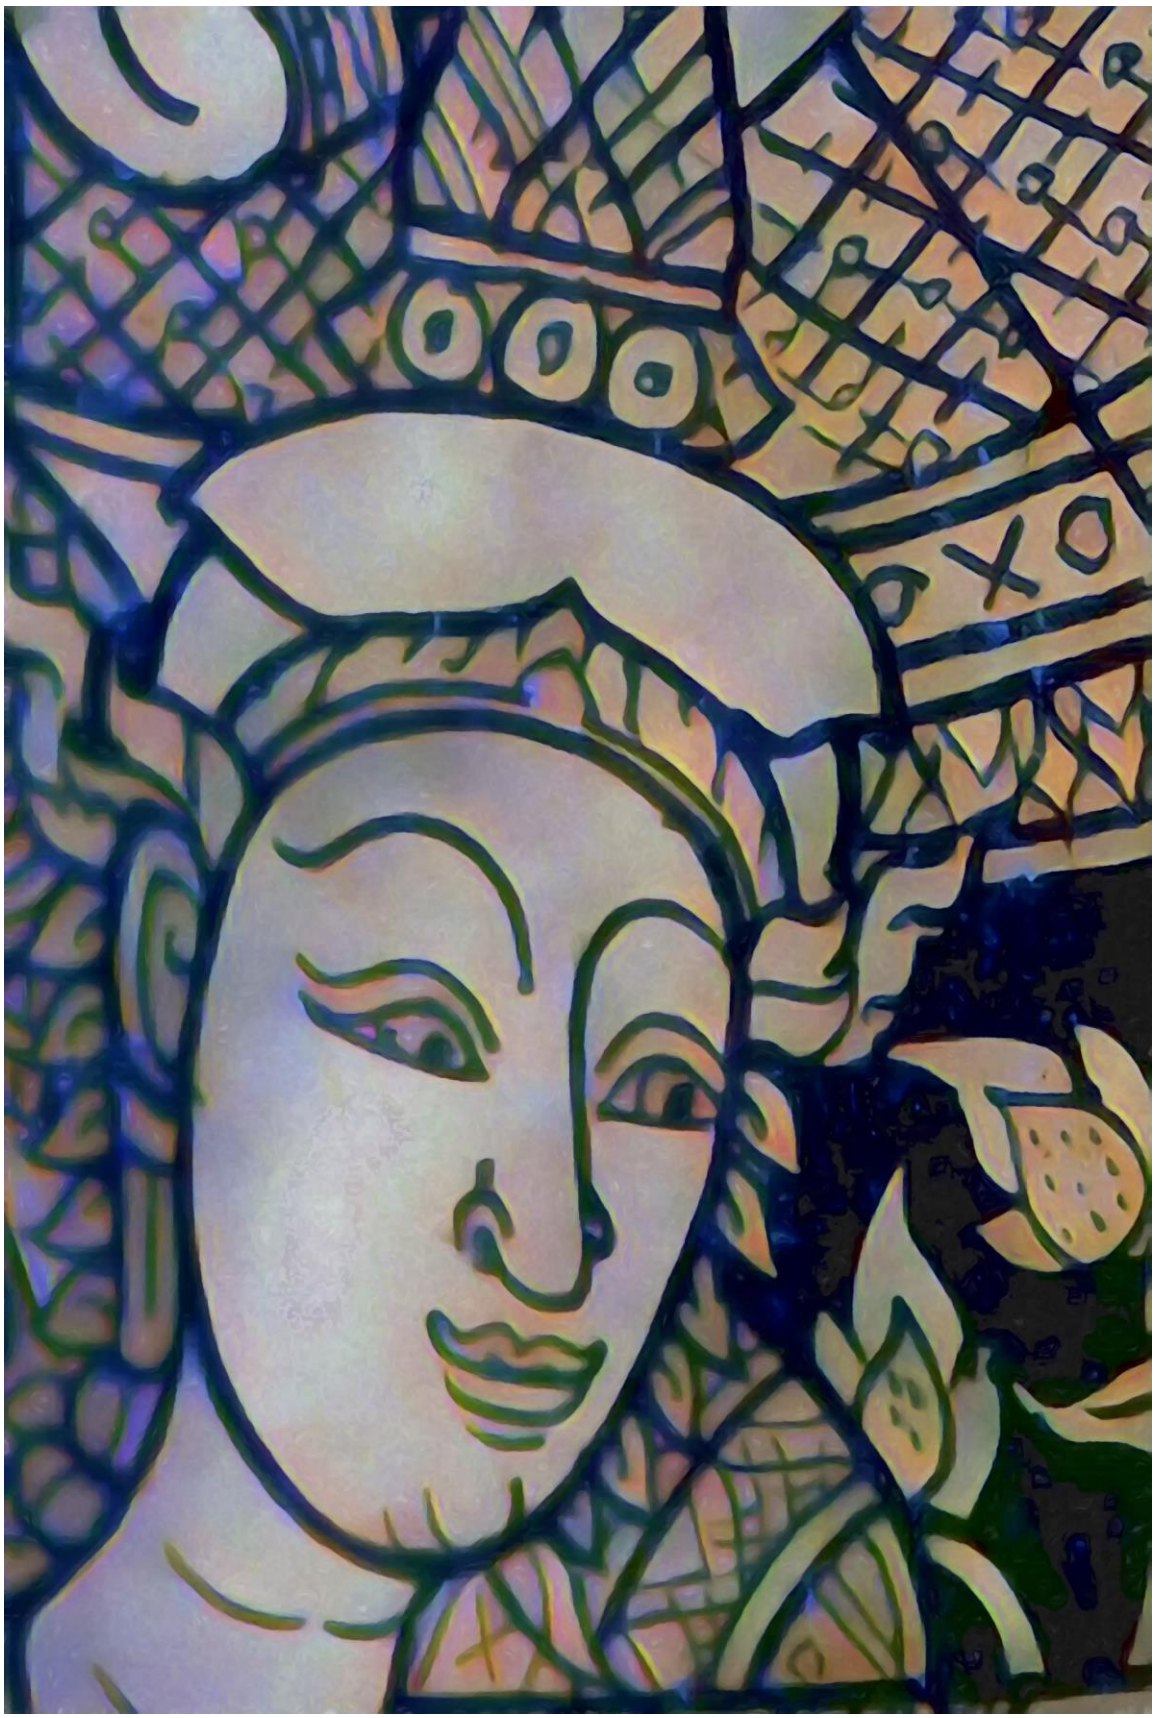
MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

had advanced warning as to the coming destruction in time to plan their own family and friends escape (AKA Noah?).

My bigger question had to do with the basic economics of why walk away from literary a gold mine planet? Why would they? How could they?

Wanda explained that while not perfect they did have their “get out of jail” card in the form of the young whistle



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

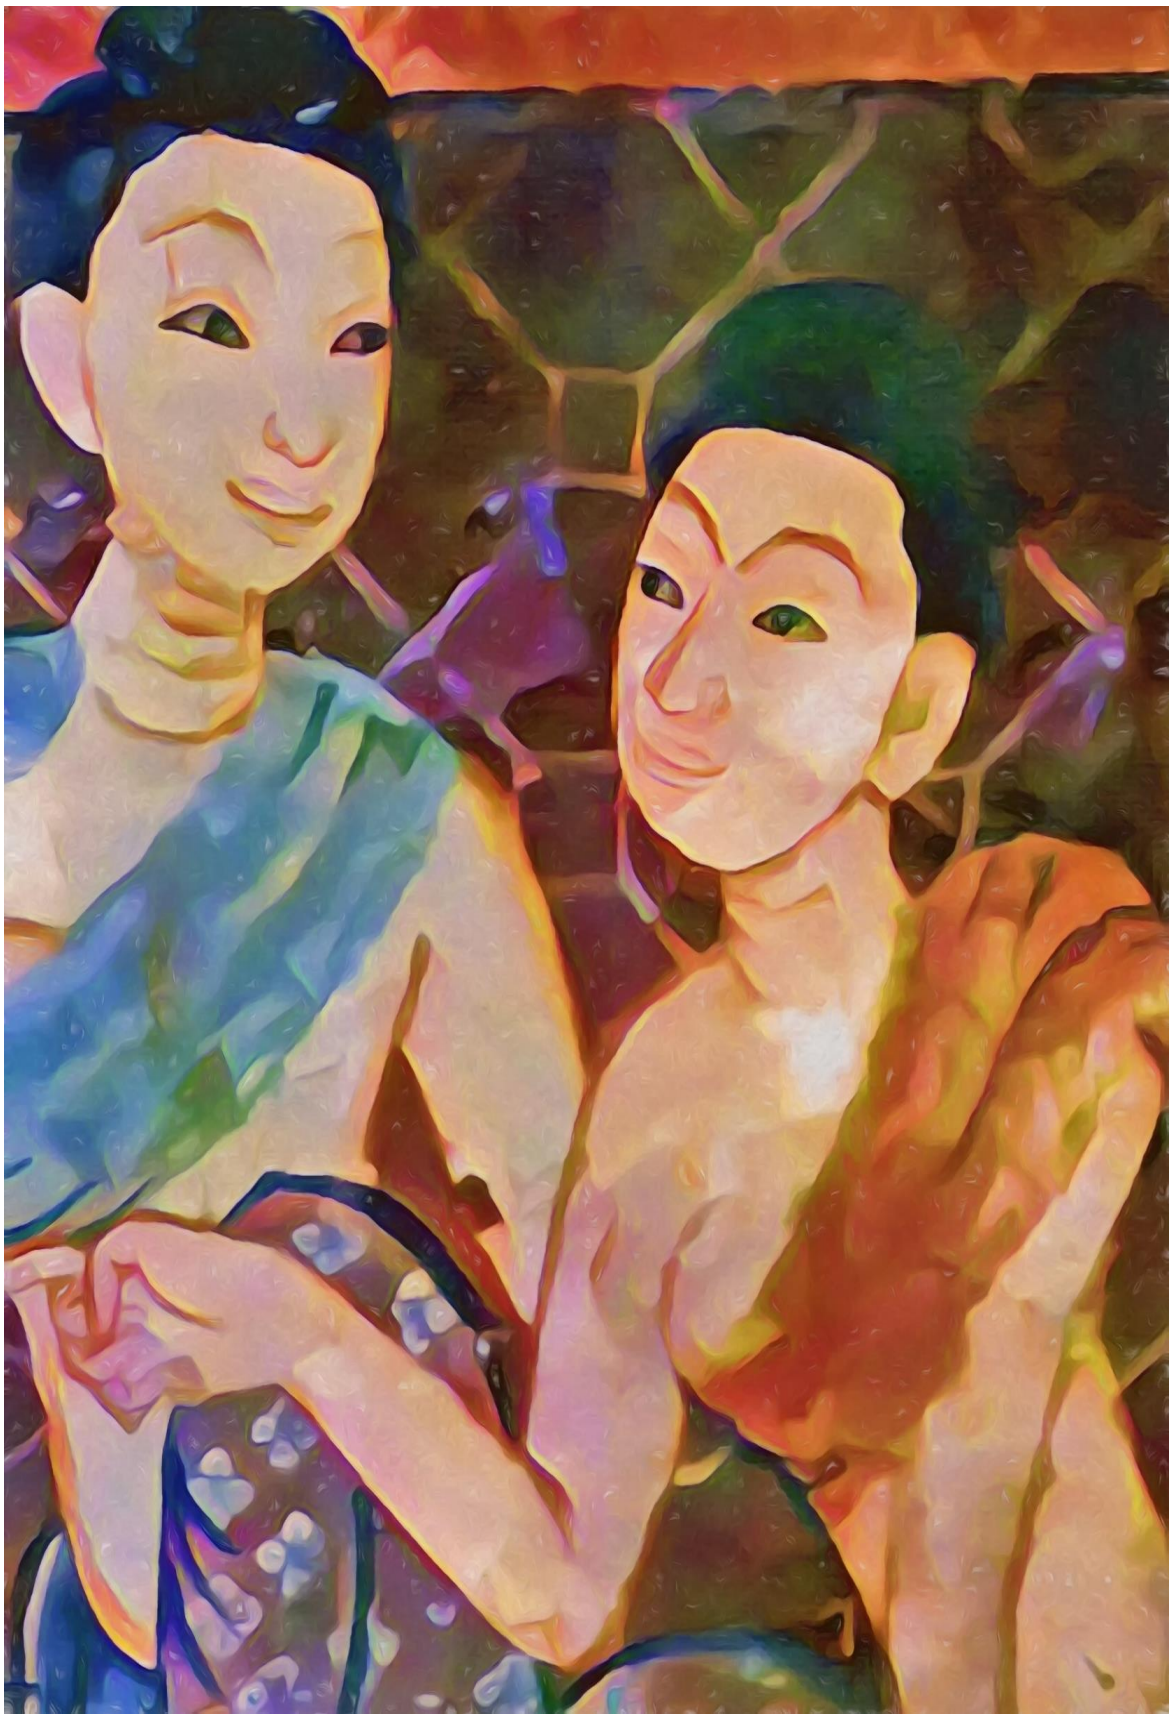
HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

blowers with the human virus Freedom and this give them a proper excuse for wiping out humanity and from the Home worlds desire to return to the planet – as there was no vaccine to deal with this virus…plan perfect…they were slick and played the whole thing out straight.

Thus, the earth was designated as a plague planet that all travelers in the Multiverse must avoid due the deadly virus Freedom.



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

Wanda gave humor to my exquisite mind as she said that my true education had been limited to what she accredited to the great pride that I expressed in admitting that I had become a lifetime subscriber to a rather wide variety of grocery store tabloids (they actually did have that available by paying a one-time fee for the privilege…there is that forbidden word again!)

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

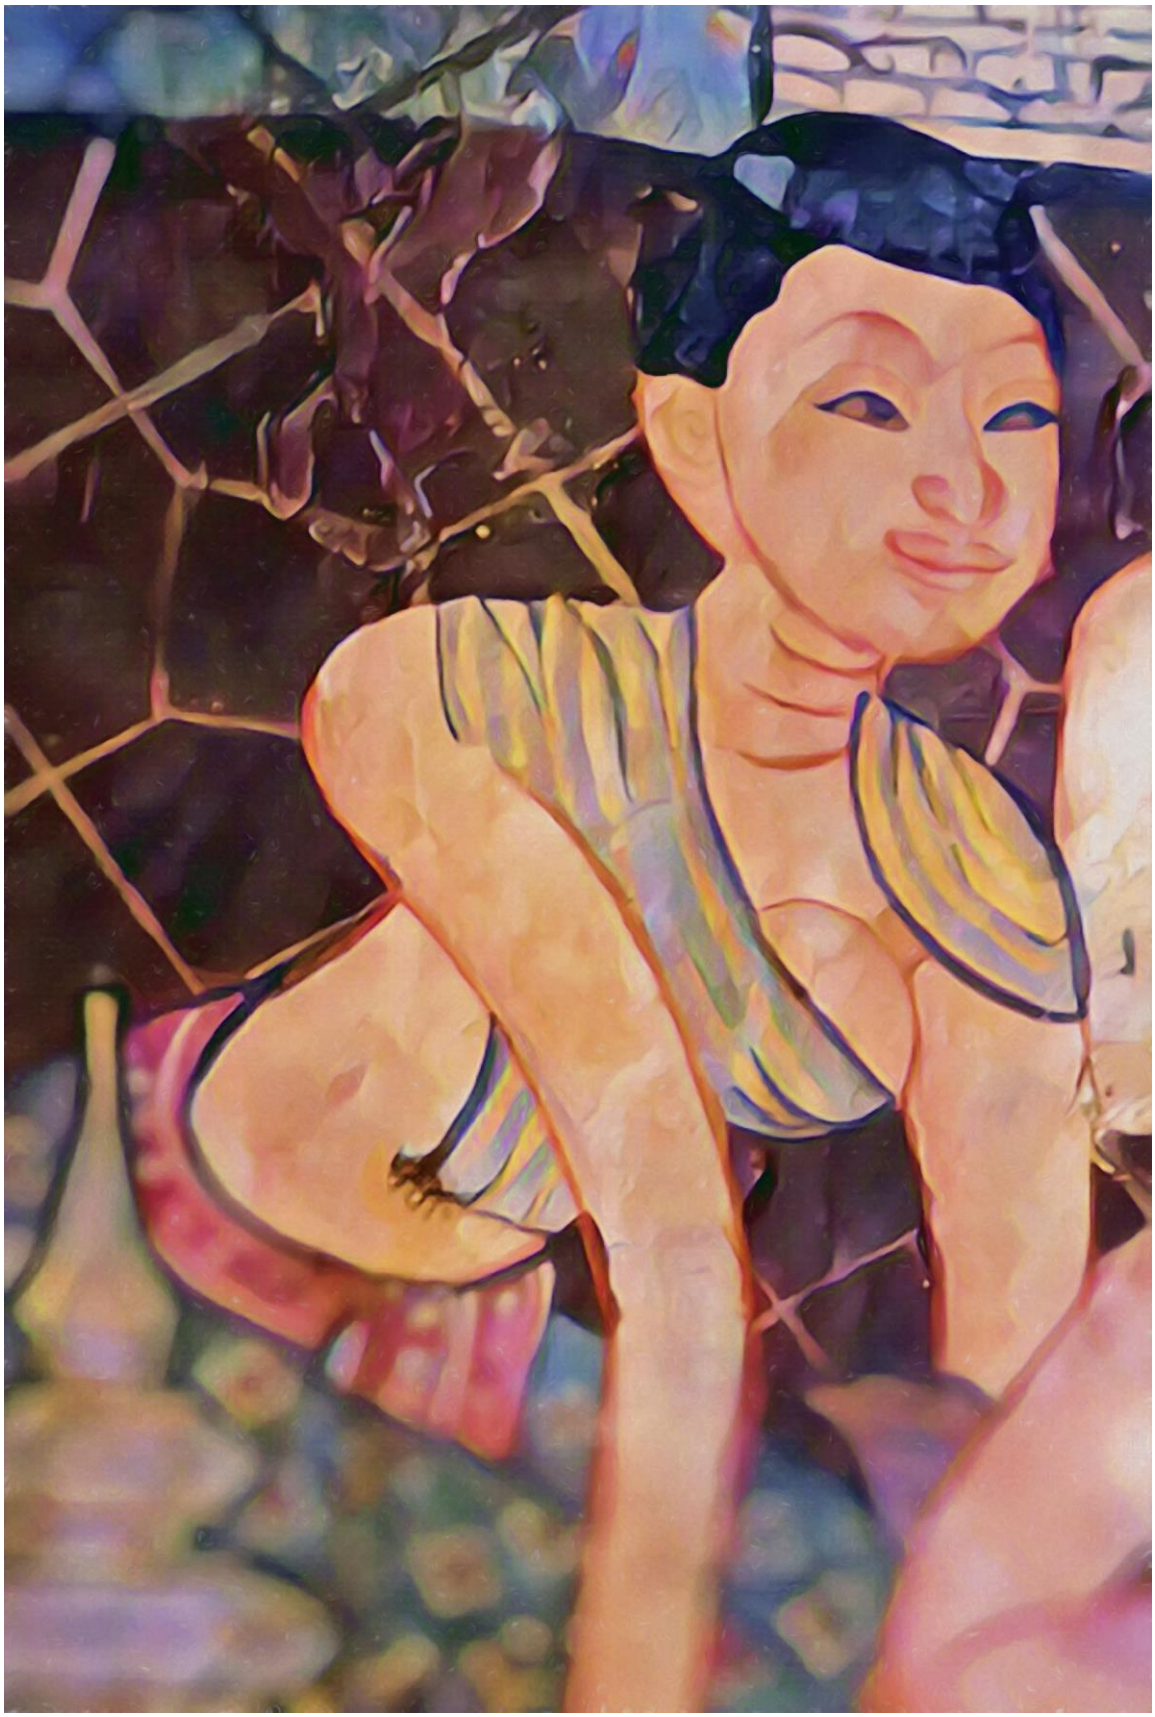
MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

as she granted me one final question which she used to tie everything together in a neat little package (with even a pretty red bow).

She reminded me that the few humans who survived were from the "Seniority" Caste and it would only be fitting that they would incorporate this concept into the new world order and that would help them maintain their power and position.

Make sense, Campers???



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

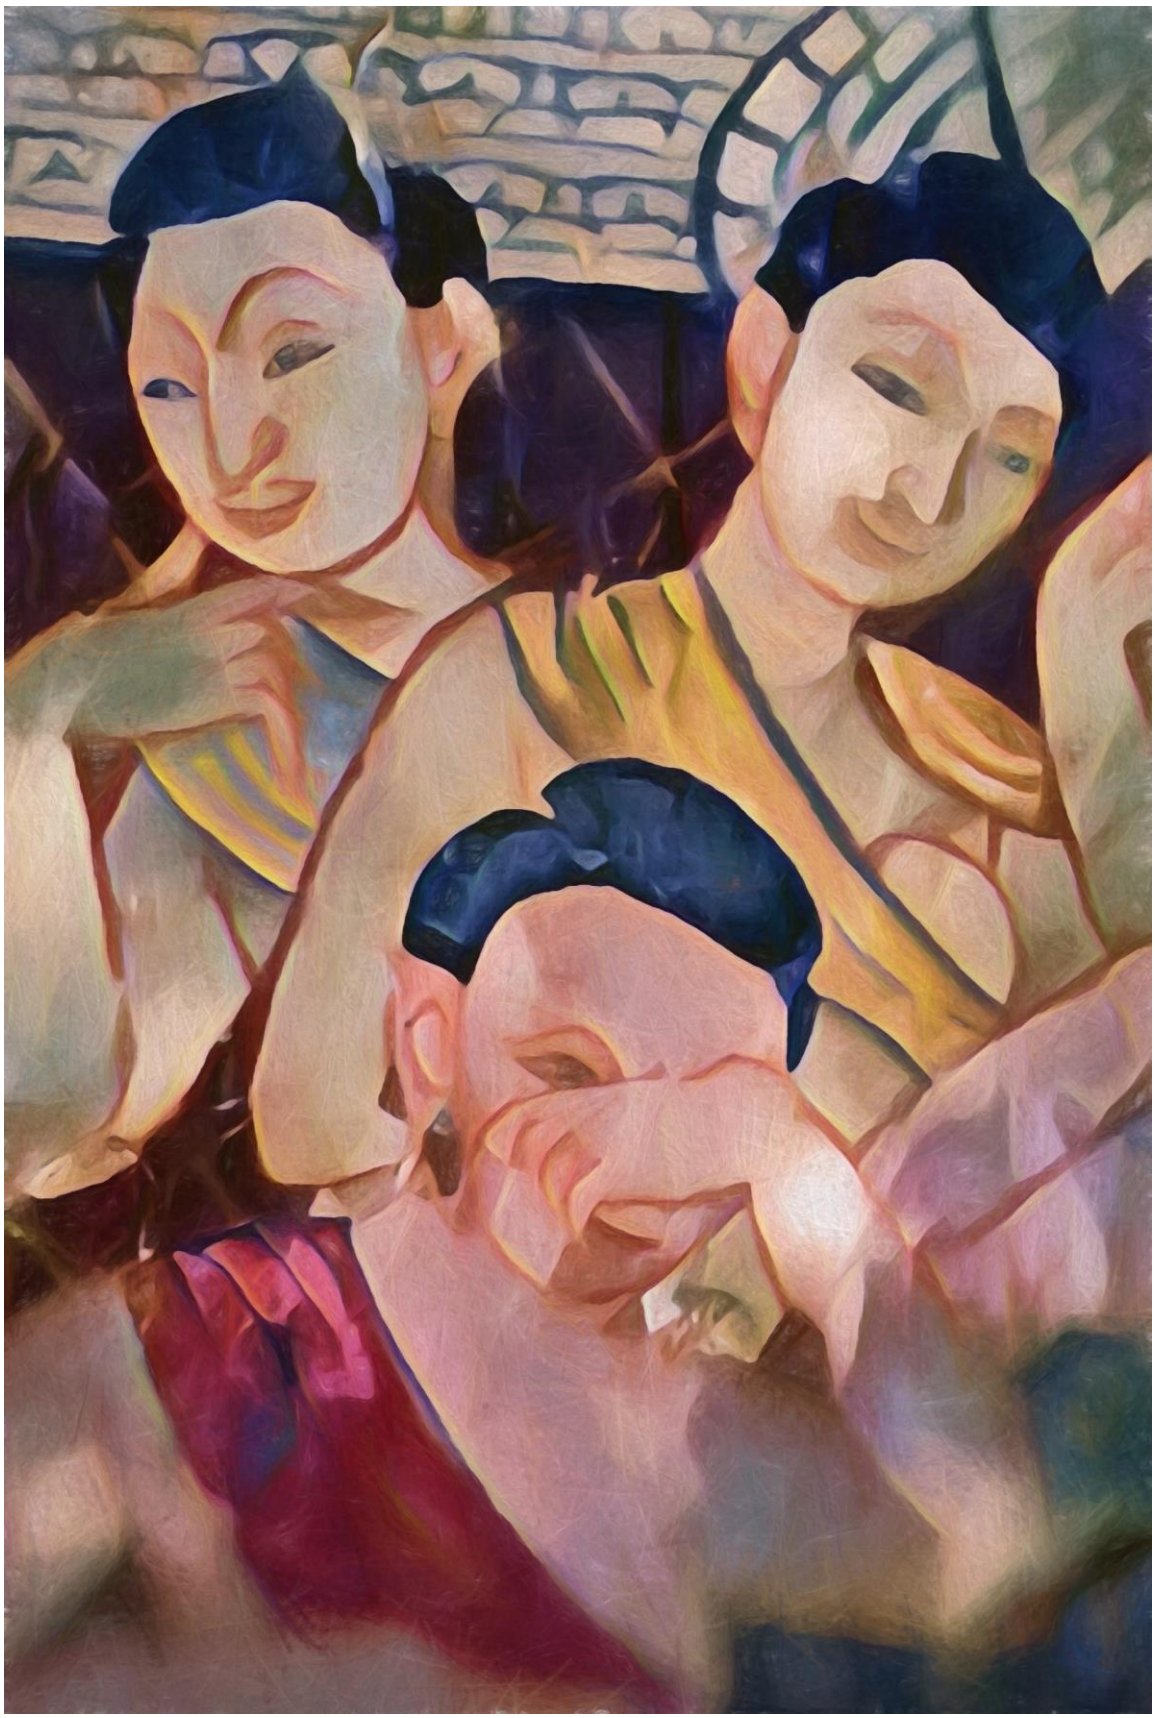
HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

are no beginnings or endings as everything is locked into a harmonic loop dictated by your locking frequency's modulation and she wanted to know if I had forgotten that the concept of time had been created by the Over Lords to control humanity.

"A million…a billion years is a blink of your eye" and so it was with the spread of the human virus to all the good denizens of the Third Level Multiverse.



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

"Remember…"

Wanda spoke slowly so I could follow her complicated concept and she would need to be repeating herself again.

"Remember, the human virus Freedom roots deep into the heart, soul and mind of the effected which installs in them a deep mistrust for accepted social norms, old traditions and accepted way in which things get done…"

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

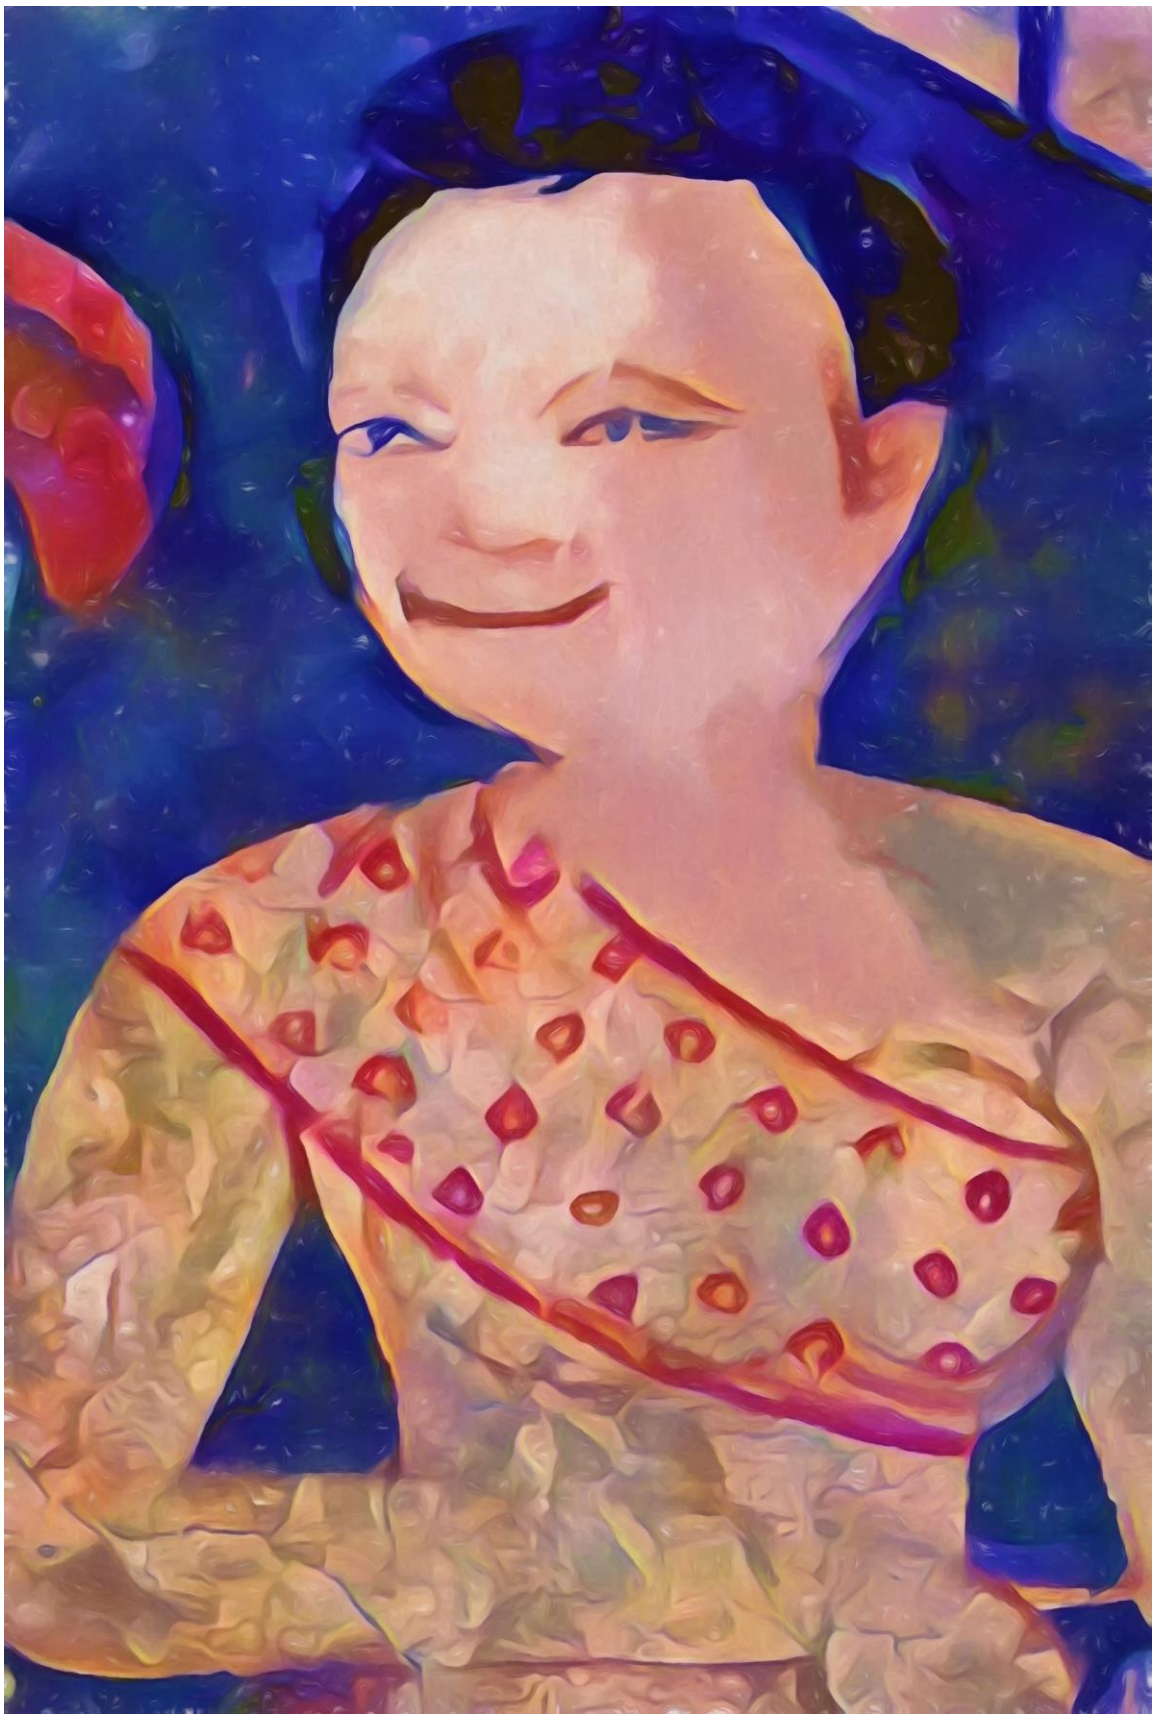
MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

I nodded that this did make kind of proper sense and had more than a tab of Wanda's ability to explain anything mixed in.

Wanda smiled and seemed happy that she might be wrong as to how dense she had first thought me to be and continued:

"So is it any surprise that the young generations might see the injustice of this ancient "Seniority" System that the miners had brought back with them



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

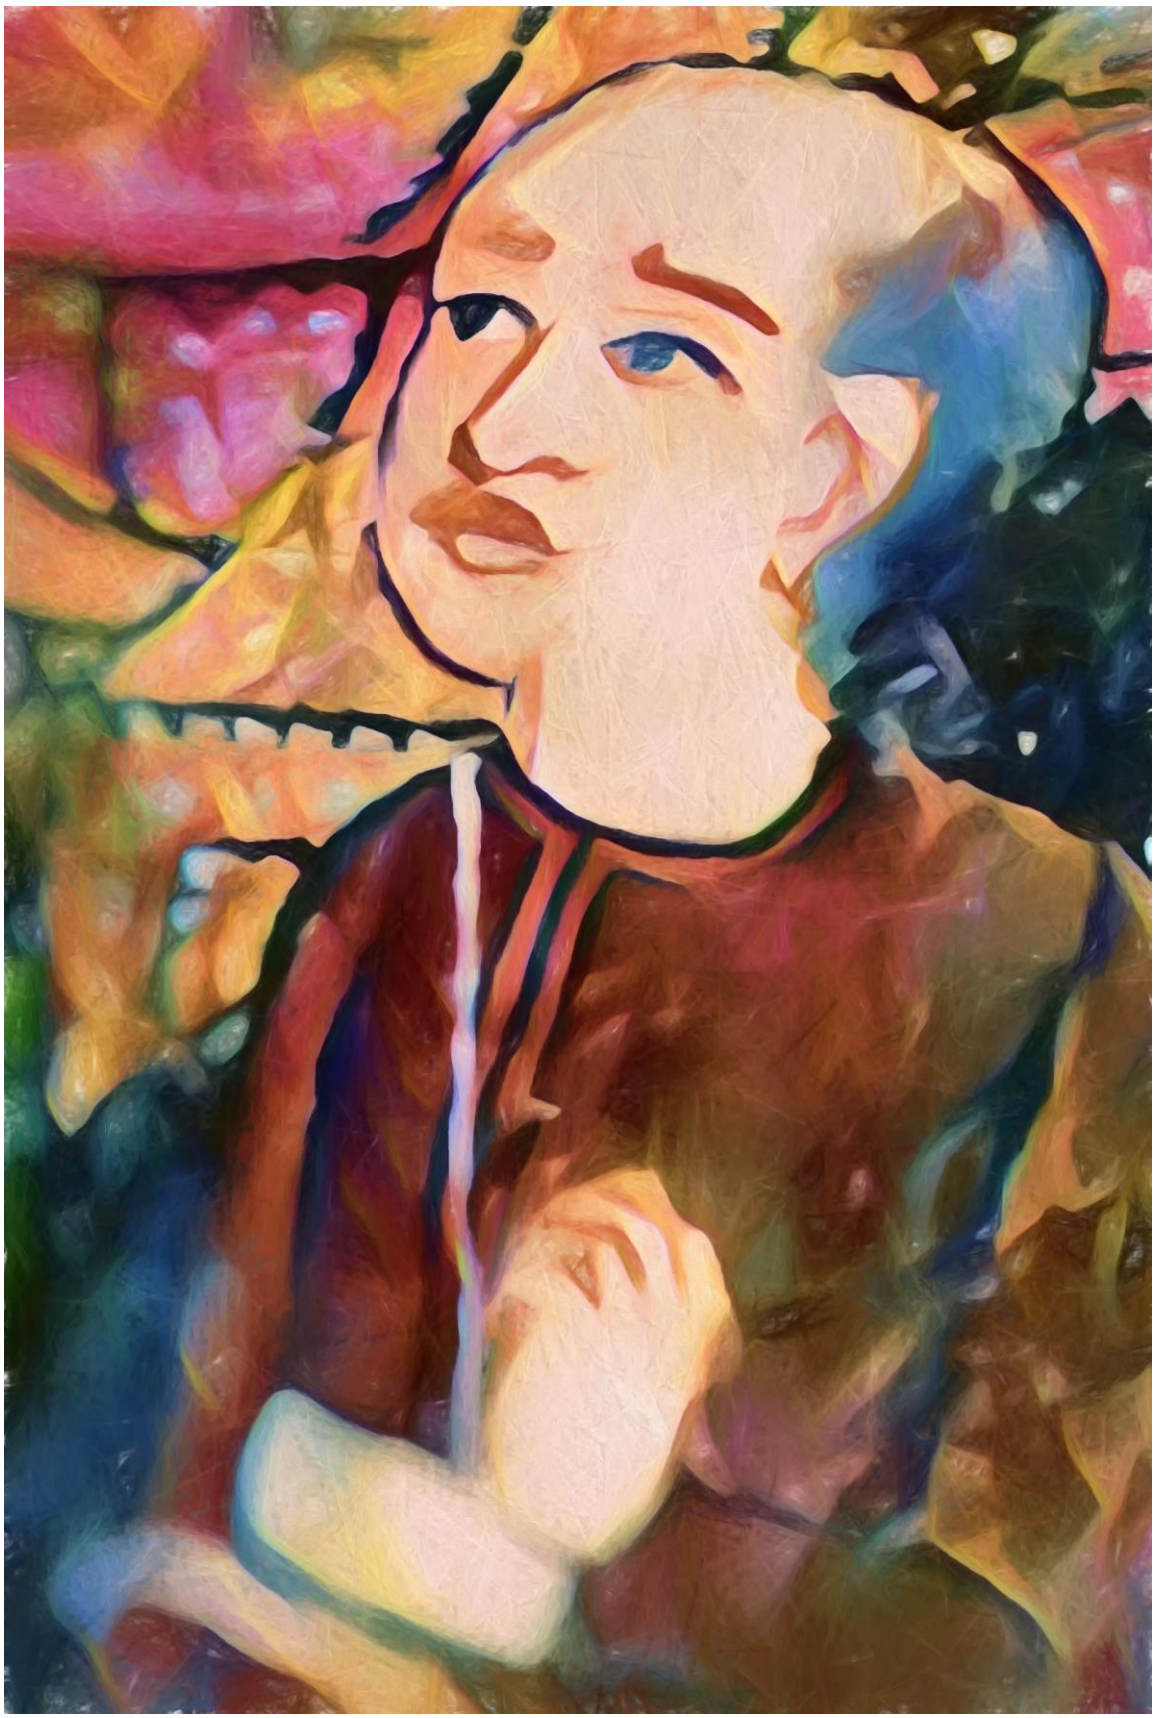
HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

after their escape from the plague world called Mining Colony Earth 1.

So in the earth year that you know as 2014, there was a mighty uprising… a violent revolution that overthrew the old order by this new generation of virus infected youths through that whole vastness of the Third Level and the phrase was actually banned by executive order of the Dear Leader of Level One of the 12 levels back in



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA ONCE SCHOOLED ME

2021 or (at least) that is what Wanda warned me towards a time when she might be able to arrange an organized "Day Pass" to the 1st level of the 12 which is open to mental projection tourism and business.

OK, Campers! Don't be confused by all of those Multiverse Scammers as humans are not allowed to physical transit little-a-lone wander about due to visa restrictions.

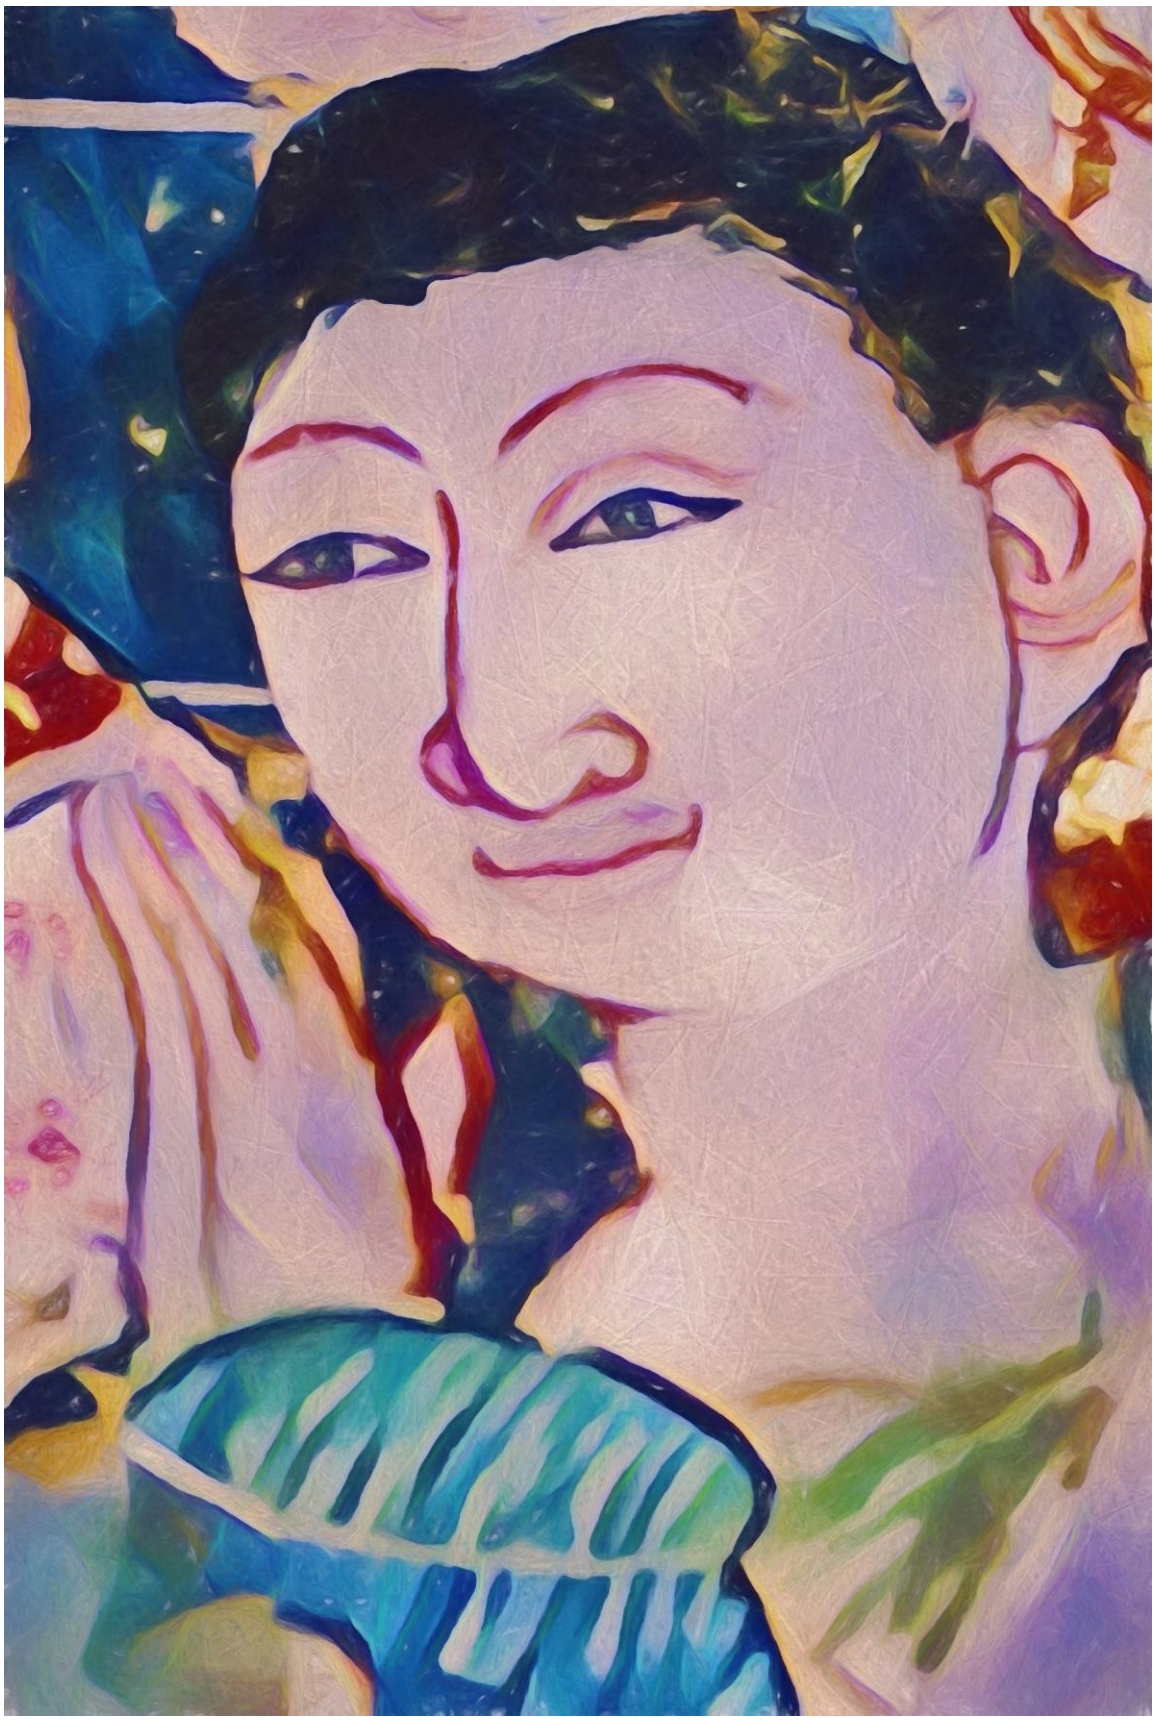
"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

WANDA

I wish that I could have sat down and wrote that Wanda was a Time Traveler sent back on a mission to right some wrong or correct what will be some future injustice but that would be so far removed from the truth that even I dare not write that as Wanda says that everything we do effects the future "But if we fear and then sit still lost in mediation there can be no future at all…"



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

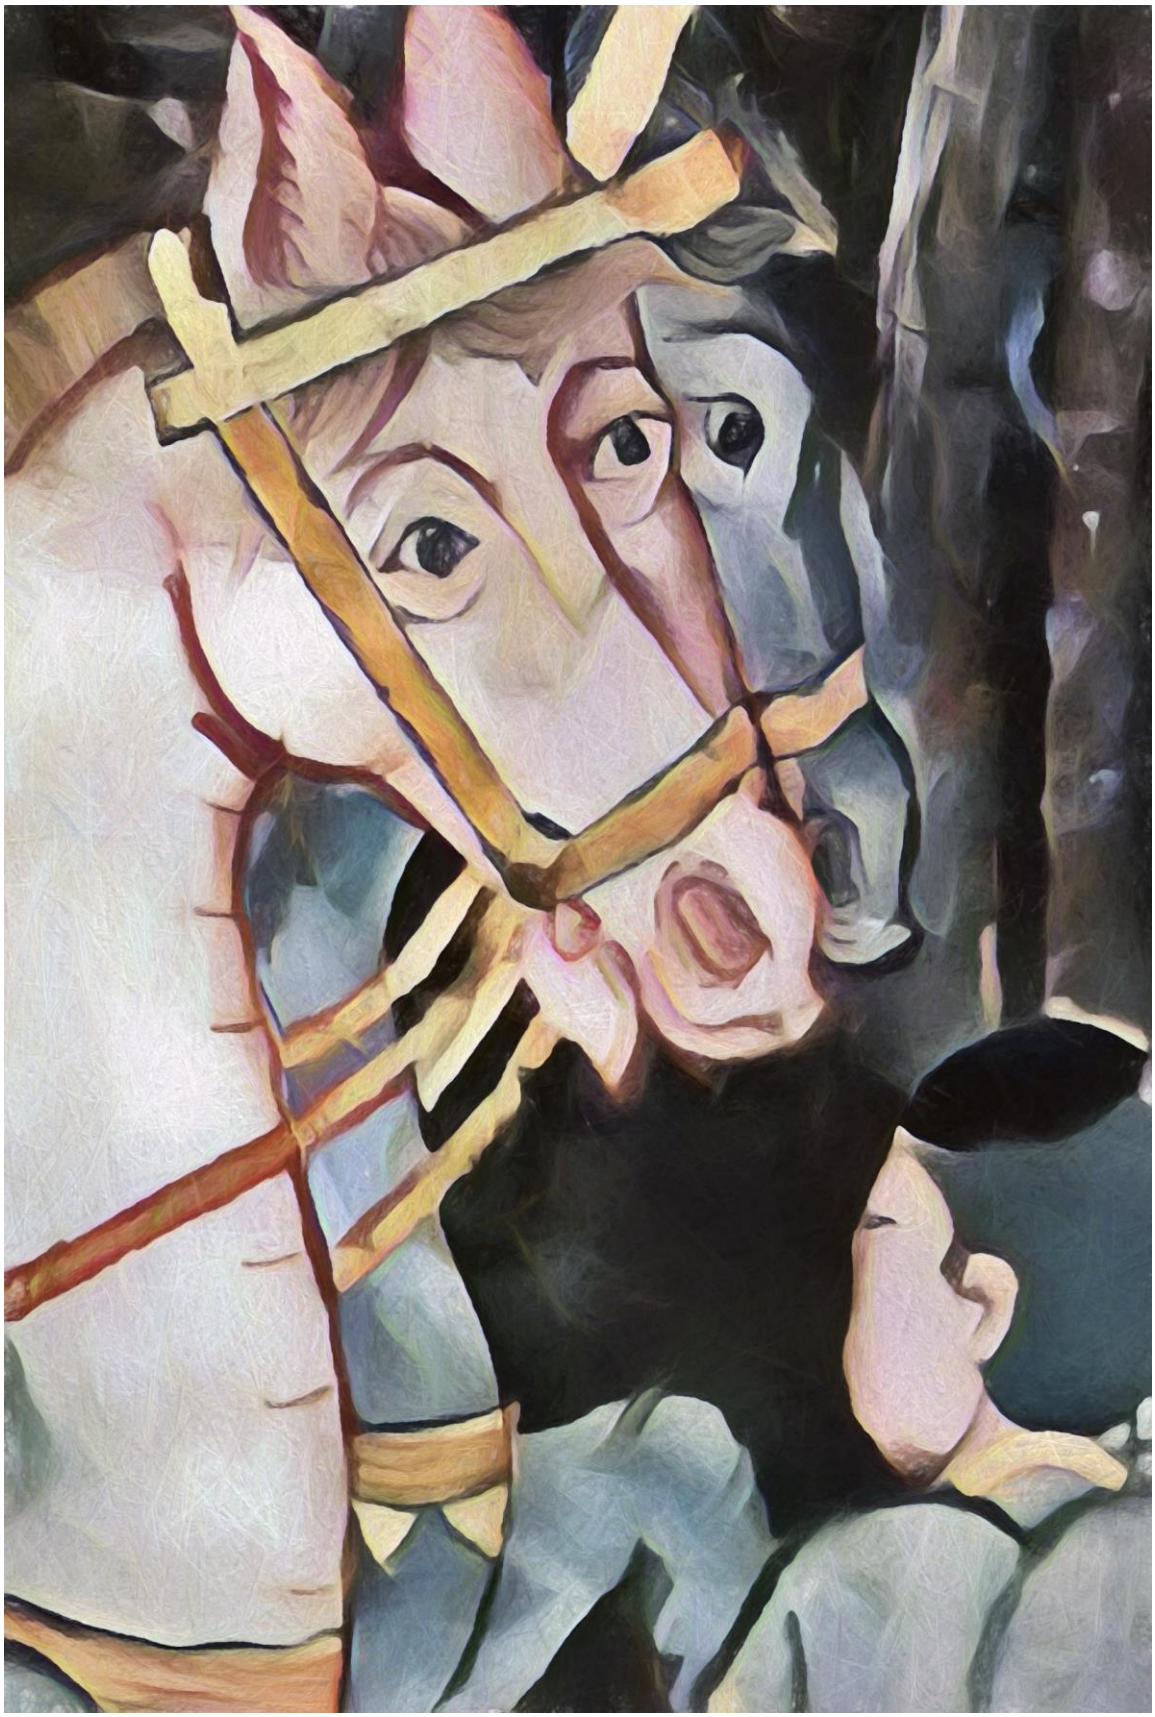
MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

So, Campers seems that we are locked into some back alley crap shoot and I don't know about your luck but I am rolling nothing but snake-eyes.

Sad, don't ya think?

Then again under the universal laws of Quantum Mechanics, time travel is just a fancy story all dressed up to answer that age-old remorse of "I should have seen that coming…"

As we have previously talked about the past,



"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

the present and yes, the future all reside in the same location…a triple feature all for the price of one admission ticket…

OK! Let me refresh you on the basics since it seems you were not paying attention before and in short, we exist in all three venues at the same location because time is an artificial creation of the Humans' original Over Lords.

We are anchored in a singular location but like a rouge radio wave

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

broadcasting from a pirate station way out in the English Channel…we are everywhere depending upon the original strength of our signal (harmonic frequency) modulation which Wanda explained is the key to traversing the portal[s] to the Multiverse.

Even Einstein admitted time as we think we understand is based upon a false notion given to us by the First Ones that survive the Great flood and time exists as a

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

dimension (4th Dimension) which is just a different way of thinking about the 12 Levels for all of the uninitiated amongst us who are not the proud graduates of the Mystery Schools.

So, even in the scared halls of the Einsteinian School of Physics, heads were shaking when the great Mister Einstein had to admit that the 4th dimension does in fact exist (at least in his theories) and further agreed that it can be

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

traveled to but concluded that it was a place where nothing can be changed, modified or erased (much like in the capital?) and thus, the whole purpose of time travel was and is debunked back to a secret DARPA Ponzi Scheme to rob the public treasury of unaccounted for billions of dollars without fear of being held responsible as I have been told that their standard answer at those closed-door congressional hearing was a simple con centered

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

around a tearful pled:

“Oppps! We bad, but if we can get an additional ___ trillion dollars…we might be able to make it work?”

All field-related researcher(s) including those DARPA Scammer Boys openingly admit (off-the-record) that our ability to reach and poke around in the 4th Dimension lies in the development of the a laundry list of most advanced technologies for which are still (Maybe?) over a 1000-year off in a future that hasn’t been created yet by what we do in the present…

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

MUD HAS NO REFLECTION

(Catch 22…get it???)

See, this is why the con works so extremely well that even Mister Ponzi would gush proudly over how smart these fellows up at the DARPA truly are and how well the have conned more (now) than several generations of Congressional Over-sighters by coming up to the hill, sitting down and with straight faces tell the most unbelievable wise guy

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

tales as they manically claim that:

"Unless we spend trillions more today in unregulated (off-the-books funding) research we will not create a future where it is possible…a reality!"

And these days, I am told that they really spice the cake by adding to their spiel:

"And if we don't…you know them Chinese CCP Dudes are about to catch us and God only knows what the Evil Man Putin would do with this technology…so we need an additional line of untraceable credit to ensure we have proper security and in the name of National Security we need to shut down access to this project's data…Yes! Senator, that would include Congress as we all know about Ms. Fang-Fang and how much damage she and her CCP Cousins have already cost us in stolen tech and even in your personal data which we did promise never to discuss in public…We can count on your vote???"

While a few brave but rather foolish young whistle blowers have come forward in the past few years in an effort to let the public know how badly they have been cheated, lied to and robbed all with the rubber stamp of that smiley guy with capped teeth and bad hair (and Ms. Fang-Fang's second cousin's phone number on their speed dial) which the rube voters keep sending back to the capital.

who have come forward to These brave lads (and now even a few lasses) come forward to denounce this folly as:

“This is nothing more than the bluntest, the worse example of the ultimate corporate welfare and the public must demand answers!”

What they all fail to understand is that everyone is (to some extent) in on the take and each has their own hands buried deep in turning a blind eye to what is really going on.

As one Congressional staff, rather rudely explained in somewhat graphic details that my life would be worth squat if I ever dared to repeat any of what he told me about everyone is happy with the system…it's disfunction works and he told me point blank:

"Like, only a Forest Gump would think about ruining a system that has made a majority of us smarter players…it has made me rich and I do not take kindly to you missing with all this dear cousin…and if it wasn't for your dear old Aunt Mandy…I would have put you on that bus out to the FEMA Re-Education Camp other in the Utah Deserts already, by myself…

The Camp Mit BBC Work Camp…you know it?

Unless you want to see it first hand…get on a plane and head back to Asia and maybe, I can arrange a special invite from one of Miss Fang-Fang's older sisters!"

SHE WENT WHERE?

I clearly recall the day that those government boys came looking for Wanda and how upset they got when I tried to clue them in that she had fixed her Harmonic Frequency modulation (home unit) and had phased out of this level's frequency range…

While I made no effort to go into greater detail with the fact that she was still here but that we couldn't see here because her body was vibrating at such a different frequency she could not see us or us her even though she hadn't vacated her space but had out distanced herself far outside our consensus ability to process.

In retrospect, that was a smart move in that what I did tell them had them fuming in thinking that I was trying to be real smartass or that I might be own some serious drugs – both of which they informed me was a violation of some Federal Statue…not sure which one(s) as they were kind of right as the nearly empty bottle of Cuban Rum in my hand would indicate all the while I tried to assist them find Wanda.

Right away, I understood that they had a similar training as a Fed that they had taught me in my class of "Investigative Journalist 101" from the Great Columbia School of Journalism (The Home Study Course) when they sat down on the porch, pulled out a pack of gum (as they aren't allowed to smoke on duty) and tried to get all chatty.

As we have all been taught that when the mark gets comfortable and all chatty; they begin to slip up and saying things that their (future) lawyers will ask the courts to excuse these comments from evidence; and here these government boys were will trained and went down the "Get them to confess" Study Guide by the book…point by point…I was impressed and thought that they must have scored high on this unit's final test.

Finally they left with a pretty good imitation of Cousin Arnie's "I'll be back" phrase from his great Terminator Series (Well! Movie Three was not really that good I have to truthfully admit…Sorry Arnie!) and I waved as there government Ford pulled out of the trailer Park.

As our old Buddy, Larry Nichols taught us in his Political Bootcamp 101 and what these government boys seem to have not learned in their agent training and that was:

“When the government {you too?} wants to hide something they hide it in plain sight…”

Who is to say that God isn’t the same way as the Jesuit Brothers once taught me that we are the spitting image of God, himself…and I’m nor lying! It is there in the bible…I actually went down to the community's main library to get a bible to check out if what the Bros had told me was correct (while it took a while to find the Bible as it seems that some rouge librarian had moved it over to the "Fiction" Category in the Dewey Decimal System used by my library's old card catalog) and it was there in print…

I checked with a newer edition to make sure it wasn't a form misprint… those things do happen!

You have heard me on occasion address this very issue, first hand…

I know this all too well the many hands that process your masterpiece long before it gets out to the kind readers…like you all!

Seems that every faceless clerk or thug, gangster accountant has more say in what gets printed than does you dear, starving artist.

Was noticing down there in the live chat where several of you made reference to the "Mud" People and are questioning why Wanda believes that they hold the key to the very future (remember time is fake) of the entire Multiverse on their shoulders.

This started out of my ignorance about the role that this group from Level 2 played in God's plan to bring harmonic modulation between the

"MUD HAS NO REFLECTION"

HOBO TOURS 2023

Levels by creating the walled barriers that prevents what happens on one level from leaping over to another like the human virus did on Level three with terrible results that were hard to eradicate and may help explain the exclusion (to this day) of humans from the Council of God.

The wall barriers were created with something that historians now refer to as the "Mud" and that you might better understand as a mixture of cosmic dust and dark matter that mixed together in a secret recipe with the seven secret herbs and spices that grow only in the Garden of Eden (God's Sanctuary Garden) have the ability to disrupt the frequencies of matter from penetrating the walled barriers that God created and so far…it seems to have worked fairly well.

The people who God solely entrusted the task of creating cosmic mud took their name from the product that their tribe was famous for.

At least, this had been Wanda's way of explaining something that I am sure was really the greatest and complicated feat of engineering in the Multiverse's History.

Since Wanda first told me this bold tale, I have come to discovered several other not-to-be-named historical sources close to the Council of God who claim that this was not the first time that God had attempted to create these harmonic modulation barriers and they further told me that it did not end well…

In fact, they referred to it as the "Big Bang" and God had to reboot the Multiverse and on the second go with the expertise of the Mud People everything and everyone lived in harmony…separate but, kind of equal with the exception of all those damn human scums and their killer of social norms virus!

their killer of social norms virus!

Truly, I do agree that this story seems way out there and to my credit; I called her on the total truthfulness of this wild of God, Mud People, secret recipes and other such details and this is how she responded:

“Does Mud have a reflection?”

Ponder that my friends while you sit under your meditation tree and you to might earn your “Day Pass” to the Multiverse!
